GL Welcome Day, September 4, 1963, an introduction to a small part of Saxon life.

The first day, September 9, the beginning of the end
for some, the first step for others.

Indian Summer days
melting into crisp fall nights at the stadium.

Football with an added

A two-week UGN drive ending with $500

The Magazine Drive — for every two subscriptions,

Black Friday, November 22, a day of national tragedy.

And then Thanksgiving vacation, saddened by the recent loss of our president.

On September 9, South Salem opened its doors for the tenth year. Enrollment reached 1964, more than doubling the number of students with which the school began a decade before.

The Girls' League began the year on September 4 with the Big and Little Sister Day to welcome incoming sophomore girls and transfer students.

An integral part of opening procedure, fee-paying, was conducted the first two weeks of school.

SOUTH OPENS ITS DOORS

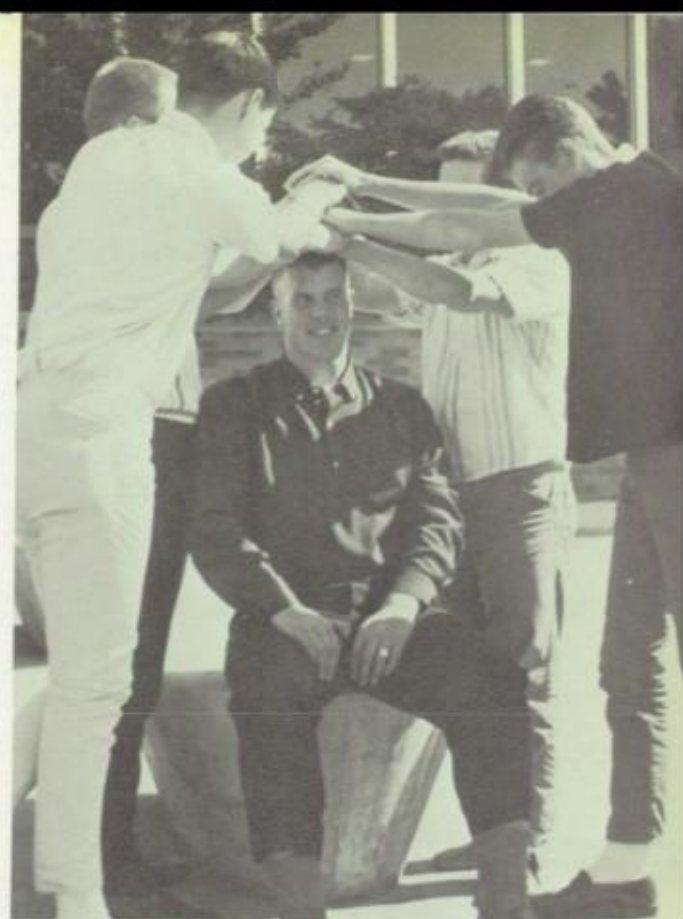

Crowded conditions brought split-shift scheduling, study halls in the library and cafeteria, and packed halls.

Senior boys took advantage of the prolonged good weather, using the noon hour to conduct "educational" experiments outside. Mike Badger, Ron Willeford, Dana Smith, and Ken Day effortlessly lift Spence Powell with the assistance of deep concentration.

On September 13, hundreds of Saxon fans watched their team fall to the Vikings, 26-6.

On October 9, Saxons, busy eating lunch, witnessed a real fire as one of the school buses went up in flames.

ROSES AND DANDELIONS

Mr. Carl Aschenbrenner, "Mr. A." to Saxons, has been at South the decade of our existence. In the first year he established the tradition of giving verbal "roses" and "dandelions," thus expressing reactions to accomplishments and unfavorable actions. His very familiar crewcut also began the first year, at the hands of the football team after they had completed the season with no losses. The biggest problem "Mr. A." faces is the rapidly expanding population of South which makes it difficult for him to know as many of the students as he would like to know. He is proud of the spirit that the whole student body has created and maintained throughout our history.

Physical Education Coordinator, Herald Hauk

Maxine Heringer, Dean of Girls

Mr. Brown has been vice principal since the beginning of the school. In 1962 South gained a second vice principal, Mr. Ramsdell who had been Dean of Boys. At that time Mr. Tilton a former American Problems teacher, became Dean of Boys. Miss Heringer taught English for the first four years and has served as Dean of Girls since then. Mr. Hauk has been coordinator of physical education since the school's opening. The office staff has increased from three to four secretaries.

Vice Principals, Neil Brown and Del Ramsdell

Dean of Boys, Jack Tilton

Office secretaries, Octavia McDonough, Attendance Clerk; Ann Gross, Assistant; Wilma McGuire, Bookkeeper; Dorothy Weiberg, Office Manager.

Dr. Charles D. Schmidt, Superintendent.

Mr. James Danials; Mrs. Sherrilyn Maltby, Vice-Chairman; Mr. Sid Boise; and Mr. Thomas Enright.

In 1954, when South opened her doors, the busy Salem school board consisted of only seven members. Recent large increases in the schools have forced the board to expand to its present number of eleven.

Mr. Arthur Myers, not pictured, is the Assistant Superintendent for the Elementary Schools.

Dr. George Martin, Assistant Superintendent, Secondary Schools; and Mr. Stanley Hammer, Chairman.

SCHOOL BOARD DIRECTS OUR KNOWLEDGE

Mrs. Loretta Isom, Administrative Secretary; and Mr. Connell Ward, Clerk-Business Manager. Mrs. Isom is not a member of the board.

Mr. Lloyd Hammel, and Dr. A. T. King, M.D.

Mrs. Gladys Juran; Mrs. Doris Kennedy, Guidance Secretaries; coordinate the student-infested Guidance Center.

Counseling Staff; Mr. Clifford Girod, Mr. Arthur Christiansen, Mrs. Eleanor Ellis, Mr. Stanley Shotts, Mrs. Gwyn Craft.

PERSONNEL STAFF ENLARGES

Over the decade of Saxon history the student counseling needs have increased with the increase in enrollment. For the first four years South Salem had but two counselors, the deans; on the counseling staff now, ten years later, five people, plus the deans, work together.

Maintaining silence is the major problem of Mrs. Little, the librarian. Mrs. Little joined the staff in 1961. Mrs. Swofford and Mrs. Grasing assist Mrs. Little as secretaries.

Mr. Nelson, Audio Visual Aids Director, since Souths beginning, coordinates the use of all Audio-Visual materials, and controls the use of the Auditorium and Little Theater.

Nearly forty girls (and one boy) help in the office work of South Salem this year.

Audio Visual Aids Director, Mr. Maynard Nelson

Library Secretary, Mrs. Kathleen Grasing; Librarian, Mrs. Kathryn Little; Textbook Librarian, Mrs. Muriel Swofford.

Mrs. Jean Savage, the school nurse, since 1961, has a big job keeping nearly 2,000 students healthy.

Student Office Helpers, Becky Purvine, Pat Little, Carol Wallace.

Mrs. Eleanor Ellis, Mrs. Donna Lane, Miss Amanda Anderson, and Mrs. Winona Wright.

Many teachers have come and gone in South's first decade. The English department, which consisted of 6 teachers in the first year, now is made up of 18. New to the English department this year are Mrs. Margaret Collins, Mrs. Norma Hedberg, Mrs. Donna Lane, Mrs. Sue Leonard, and Mrs. Antoinette Bose. Mrs. Sue Simchuck also taught two classes of English in the first semester and John King assumed these for the second semester. Only three of the present teachers, Miss Anderson, Miss Burroughs, and Mrs. Wright were among those to come to South at its opening. Average English class enrollment has increased from 23 in the first year to 32 at the end of the decade.

Miss Margaret Burroughs, Mrs. Margaret Collins, Mrs. Kendra Hise, Mrs. Sue Leonard, and Mrs. Antoinette Bose.

FACULTY DOUBLES DURING DECADE

Robert Voigt's World Lit. Course is one of the most popular recent additions to the curriculum.

Mrs. Lida Halverson, Mrs. Georgia Rowell, Mrs. Norma Hedberg, Gary Ritchie and Roger Whiteman.

John Baker, Mrs. Doris Six, Bill Ritchie and Robert Voigt.

Cliff Cook; Don Guenther; Al Leopold; John King. Not pictured are Gary Burch and Kevin Morse.

Helen Lane; Lee Weaver; Goldwyn Kulbel; Joe Benninghoff.

Lou DeLoretto; Arthur Christiansen; Sue Simchuk; Don Guenther.

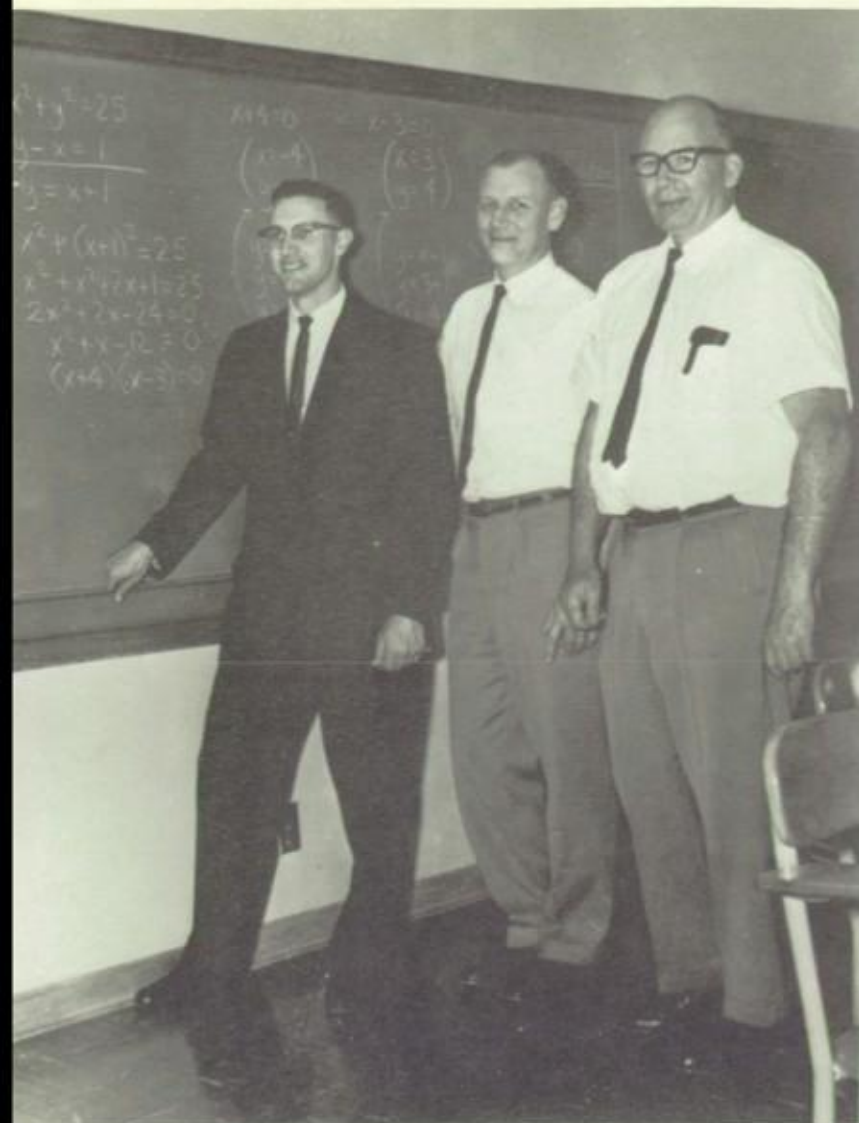

Over the past ten years, our social science teaching staff has increased in number from three to twelve. Two of the original three, Miss Helen Lane and Mr. Lou DeLoretto, have taught at South during the entire ten years.

In South Salem's first year, French, Spanish, and Latin were the only foreign languages offered. The language teaching staff then consisted of three, one of whom was Mrs. Leah Smith. In 1961 Russian was introduced, and this year students were offered German. Five of South's language teachers taught full schedules of languages this year, while others interspersed foreign language classes with other subjects.

Antoinette Bose; Marilyn Prothero; Jean Potts.

Margaret Byers; Laura Dunn; Emily Deweese; Leah Smith.

Cliff Girod; Dick Ballantyne; Bob Metzger.

Susan Irish and Joanne Green. Harry Hinton; John Edmundson; D.J. Rasmussen; Gerald Gilman.

Eight science teachers were a part of the South Salem staff in 1963-1964. Three of the group taught here in South's first year. Those three, who constituted the entire science staff in the first year, are Miss Carmelita Barquist, Mr. George Birrell, and Mr. Leo Stenback. A new concept in biology was offered this year through the BSCS course, taught by Miss Barquist. CBA chemistry, a relatively new approach, was taught for the third year at South by Mr. George Birrell and Mr. Perry Spelbrink.

South Salem's Math department originally consisted of three teachers, two of whom, Mr. Metzger and Mr. Ballantyne, still teach at South. In order to offer a wider range of mathematics to a greater number of students, this staff, since the beginning of the decade, has increased to nine.

Patricia Rynerson; Leo Stenback.

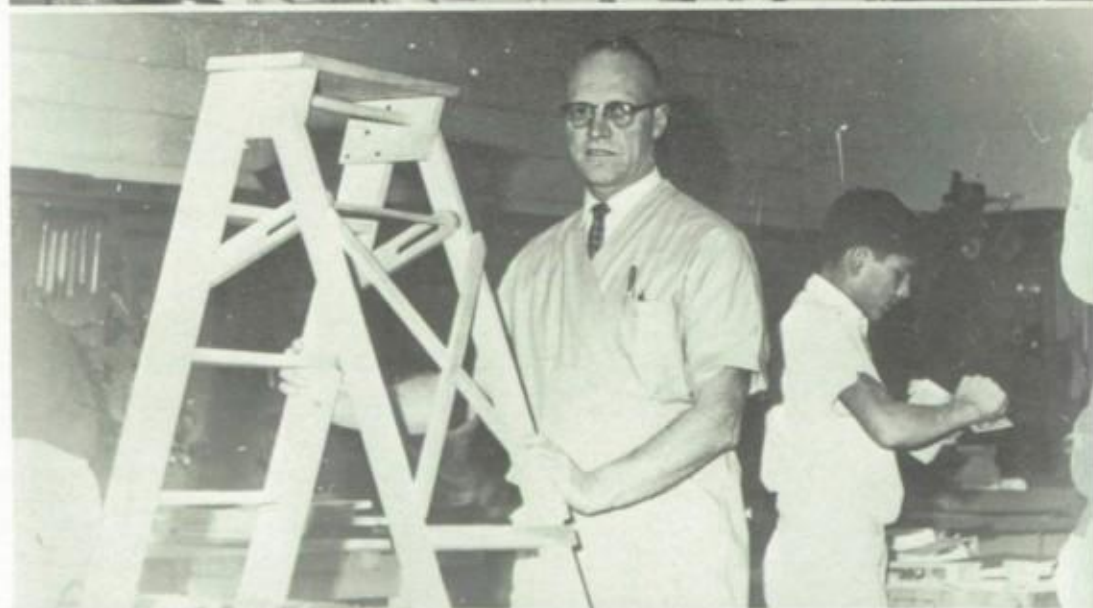

George Birrell; Gilbert Adams; Carl Nebel; Carmelita Barquist; Perry Spelbrink; Lyle Mason.

New to the Home Economics this year is Mrs. Havranuk, who is in our foods classes. Mrs. White came to South in 1959.

Gary Frame is new to the Music department this year instructing our choral groups; Pete Frajola has taught at South for four years and Wallace Johnson has led the band the full 10 years.

Of the two art teachers, one, Bill Noland, has been teaching at South the entire decade. Miss Holmes joined the staff in 1962.

One of the Industrial Arts teachers, J. D. Lockerby, has been on the staff for 10 years. In 1960, Dee Green joined the staff, while the newest to the staff is Earl Ficken, who joined in 1963. Mr. Lockerby teaches metals classes; Mr. Green, woodworking; and Mr. Ficken, drawing and electronics.

The girls' physical education teachers are Miss Shirley Zimdars, Mrs. Doris Dyer, and Miss Wilma Earnest.

In 1955, South had four Health and Physical Education teachers, each teaching in both areas. After ten years, ten teachers make up the combined department. Only one, Mr. Gary Goodson, teaches in both areas.

Miss Shirley Zimdars and Mr. Hank Juran have been with the South Staff for the entire decade.

Marv Heater and Hank Juran are the full-time boys' physical education teachers. Gary Goodson and Al Leopold (not pictured) teach P.E. part-time.

Health teachers are Mr. Stanley Shotts, Mrs. Gwen Craft, and Mr. Walter Greene.

New to the Business Education department this year are Miss Kathy Pair, Miss Pauline Anderson, and Mr. Frank Tanaka. Mrs. Mabel Preckwinkle and Mr. Robert Johnson joined the staff at the end of the first term in the 1962-63 school year. Mrs. Dorothy Judd joined the South staff in 1961. She served on the Willamette University staff as assistant registrar for two years and returned to South last fall. Mrs. Helen Edmundson and Mr. John Norman have been at South the full decade.

An enthusiastic faculty and an energetic student government have made this year a profitable and rewarding one for the whole school. These conditions have made the presidency somewhat simpler, even though its many challenges are still present. The greatest of these to me has been that of making rapid, correct decisions.

My year as secretary-treasurer has been unforgettable. I only hope that I have been of some service to the members of the student body and to South.

Working on assemblies with all the co-operative Saxons has been a very wonderful experience. Thanks to everyone who helped to make it possible.

The second vice-president meets and works with a variety of students in a social atmosphere. I sincerely hope that South has profited from my year in office.

These students are in charge of the various A.S.B. committees.

A DECADE OF SAXON GOVERNMENT

A decade ago the first student council formed many policies which have become South High traditions. Among them are the boys' pep club, a three class girls' pep club, and lettermen's jackets instead of sweaters.

The first A.S.B. standing committees were Student Relations, Social Welfare, Building and Grounds, and Scholarship. In the ten years these committees have been changed to Building and Grounds, Scholarship, Evaluation, Traffic Safety, Handbook, American Field Service, and Projects.

To facilitate the work of our student government an executive council, consisting of the student body officers, the three class presidents, Girls' League and Boys' League presidents, Inter-club president, and representatives from the annual, the newspaper, the music department, the rally squad, and the athletic department was created by Doug Morgan in 1962. This was the greatest single change in student government.

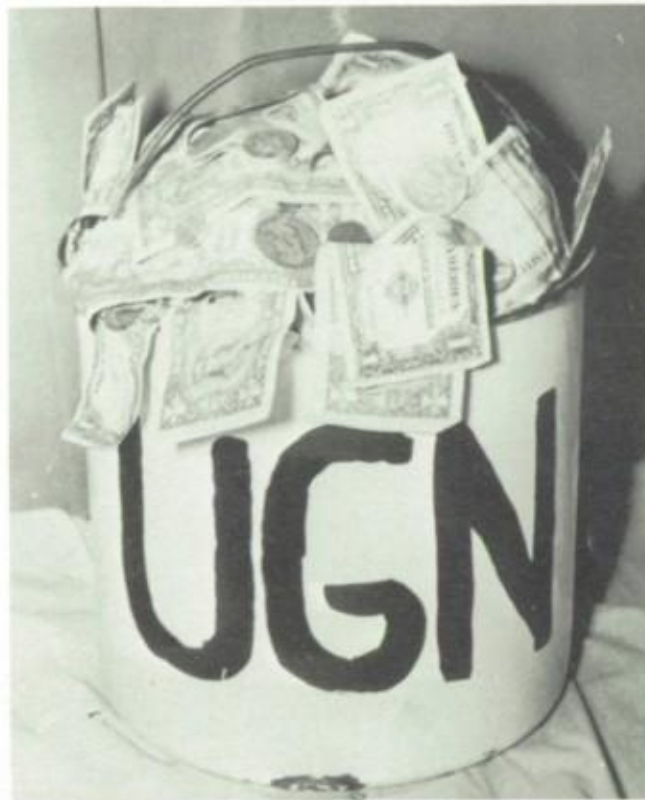

Enthusiastic representatives actively participate in student government.

SAXONS SHOW SURPASS U.G.N.

A contribution of $1721.75 topped the Saxon goal of $1200 in the United Good Neighbors drive. Juniors collected $527.91 to win the class competition, followed by seniors with $508.52 and sophomores with $269.75. Co-chairmen Mary Chism and Jeanette Wedel, assisted by class chairmen Mark Olson, senior; Sandy Harvey, junior; Julie Price, sophomore; and publicity chairman Judy F. Brown were responsible for many of the fund raising activities.

At the U.G.N. noon dance Glenda Brack, representing the class with the largest attendance at the dance, was crowned Miss U.G.N. and Greg Ogdahl was crowned Prince Charming for having collected the most hush cards. Other activities included a Powderpuff Football game, a talent show, a junior jail, a psychiatric help clinic, food sales, and individual donations.

The U.G.N. committee presented a plaque to the South Salem Student Body for outstanding achievement in the drive.

South Salem's newspaper, the Clypian, composed of school news, editorials, sports, and advertising, is published twice a month by a staff of eleven students. Mr. John Baker became the staff's adviser in 1961, following Mr. Frank Walton, who was adviser for the first seven years of South's decade.

A usual procedure after a publication is the critique, a discussion of the staff's work, conducted by co-editors Gail and Kris.

YOUNG TEACHERS BEGIN

Lauralee Laker shows a Leslie Junior High home-ec student how to prepare fabric for sewing.

The cadet teaching program has been in existence since South opened its doors a decade ago. In 1955 fifteen girls were cadets at Baker, Bush, and McKinley elementary schools. In 1964, forty-one girls and seven boys were cadets at Bush, Candaleria, McKinley, Morningside, and Richmond elementary schools, Leslie Junior High, South Salem High, and Oregon School for the Blind. 1956 was the first year that a boy participated in the program. Since that time at least one boy has participated each year. During the years 1955-1957 the dean of girls, Mrs. Lois Brandon, was the adviser. In 1958 Miss Maxine Heringer became the supervising teacher. Mrs. Lida Halvorson, the present supervisor, assumed the position in 1959.

Approximately one-half of the first group of cadet teachers became teachers and at least one has returned to Salem to teach.

I.R.L. attended state convention on the University of Oregon campus.

The International Relations League has been an active school club since South's first year.

During the current year, the school orchestra has presented two concerts sponsored by the club. West Side Story was given on November 6, and Exodus was held on February 26. These activities were presented by the club's president, Bill Holmer; vice-president, Steve Guidinger; secretary, Anne Hohwiesner; treasurer, Carolyn Reid; and historian, Maryla Gustafson.

An I.R.L. delegation of seventeen members attended the state convention on the University of Oregon Campus, February 27, 28, and 29, to take part in a mock meeting of the Common Market of Europe. Those attending from South represented Italy to consider the question of whether Great Britain should be allowed to enter the Market. I.R.L. is advised by Mr. Lou DeLoretto.

The Inter-Club Council, now completing its second year, is composed of the presidents of all the school clubs. President is Ken Sherman; vice-president, Mark Olson; and secretary, Laurie Driessler. Inter-Club advisers are Miss Heringer, Mr. Tilton, and Mr. Ramsdell.

INDIVIDUAL INTERESTS EXPRESSED THROUGH CLUBS

Members of Inter-Club include John Ewing, Fred Murdock, Leslee Cardon, Bruce Black, Jody Loop, John Herr, Marge Goodwyn, Spence Powell, Peg Cameron, Bev McConnell, and Allan Hadley.

Laurie Driessler, Sharry Potter, Mike Blair, Brian Beirne, Ken Sherman, Sandy Bauer, Sharon King, Mary Chism, and Ellen Cruse are Inter-Club members.

It's raining, it's pouring,
The Saxons are scoring!

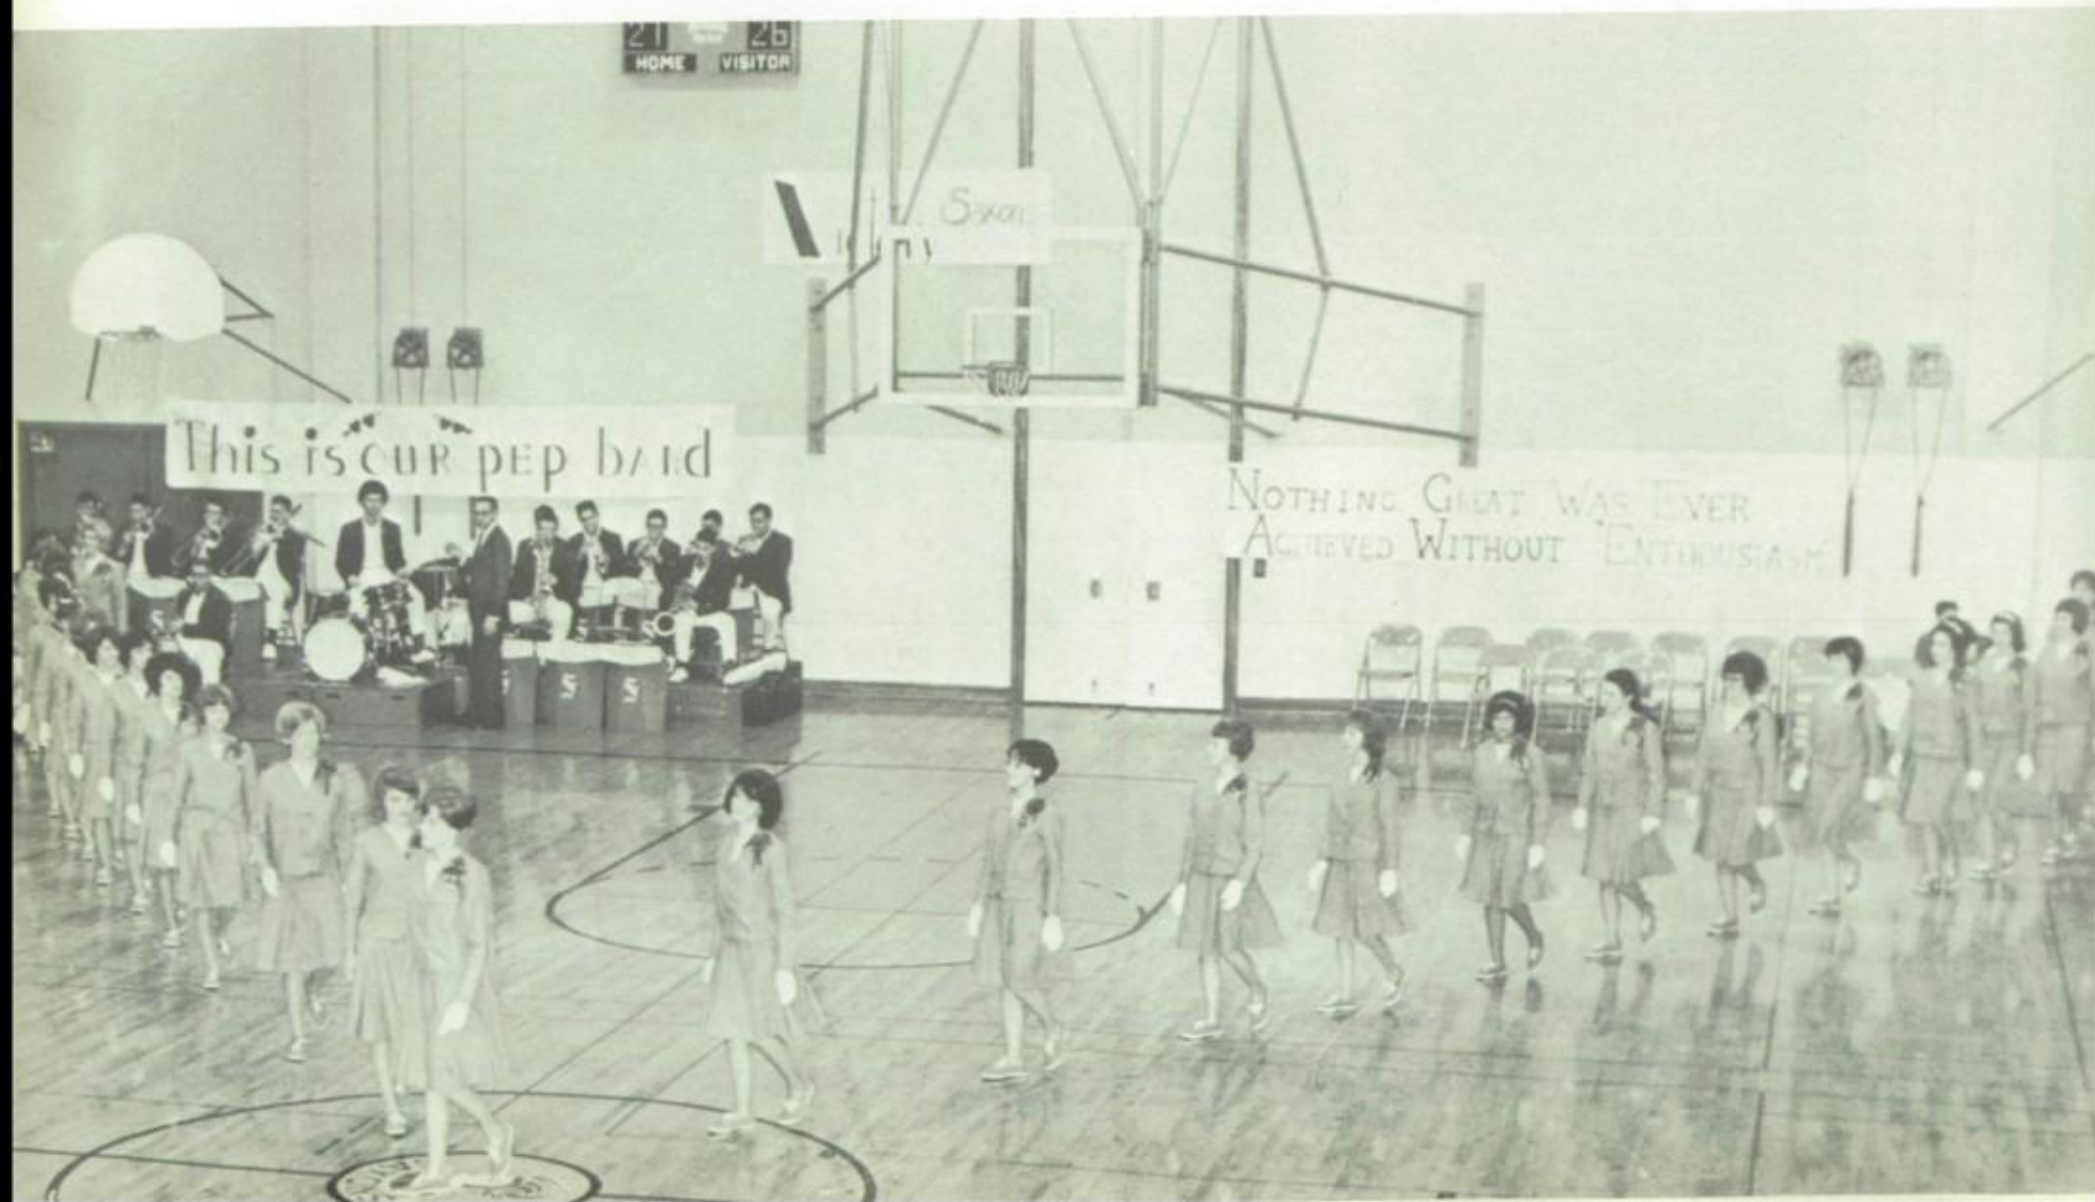

Spirit and enthusiasm were channeled by Pep Club vice-president, Marilyn Dyer; poster chairman, Kathi Rowan; president, Leslee Cardon; president of Saxonettes, Bev McConnell; and Pep Club secretary, Carol Boise.

SPIRIT THRIVES THROUGH

The Pep Club, South's major pep organization, was created during South's first year and has enthusiastically encouraged school spirit for all athletic enterprises since that time. The Saxon girls, who are all members of the club, paint posters; cheer the teams; give roses to victorious players; present skits at pep assemblies; and help to organize and participate in supervision of bus trips to games. They are advised by Mrs. Hise.

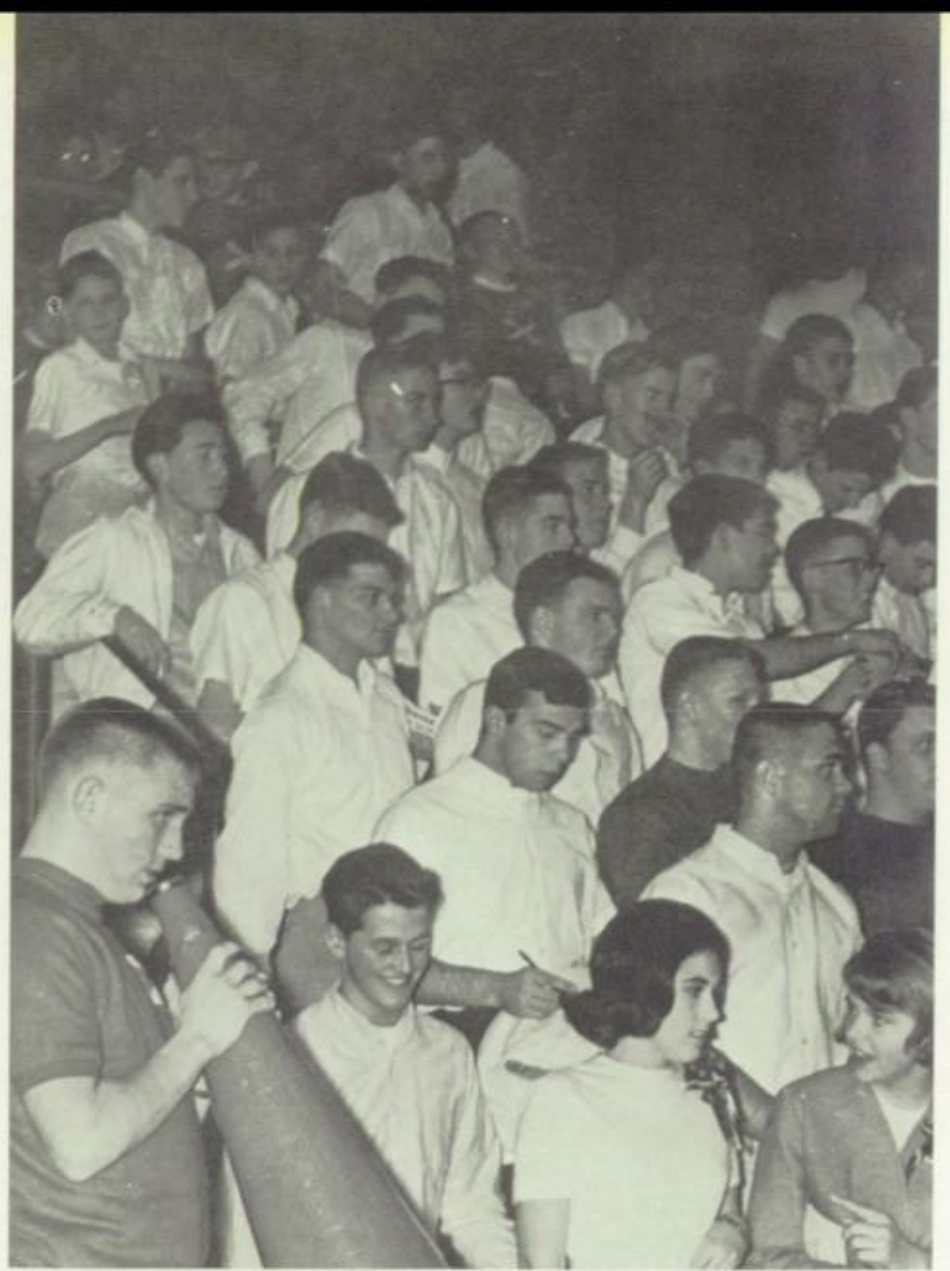

The Rowdy Dowds were organized as a boys' rooting section during South's second year. During the 1963-64 year, as a money raising project for the Boys' League, they sold "Toad Lids" and "Rebel Sweatshirts." Twelve Rowdy Dowd Darlings, chosen to reign over home games in both football and basketball season, competed for the title of Rowdy Dowd Darling of the Year. Dean of Boys, Jack Tilton, advises Rowdy Dowds.

The Saxonettes, senior girls' marching group now completing their third year, have provided half-time entertainment at both the home and away games with the supervision of adviser, Miss Lane. Members included Mary Jane Bishop, Pat Blair, Charlene Brown, Peggy Cameron, Diane Chakarun, Janet Combs, Bonnie Dick, Lindi Edmundson, Dina Gohring, Sunni Doan, Jo Ann Haugstad, Alice Herb, Sue Hill, Carol Howell, and Darlene Hudson. Others included were Linda Hudson, Sandy Ingalls, Jeanette Johnston, Sharon King, Nancy Lucas, Liz McCarger, Bev McConnell, Carol Moberg, Candi Perry, Barb Sierp, Cheryl West, Sharon Young, Rita Fugman, and Bev Turvey.

DECADE

Mr. Aschenbrenner crowned Mary Jane Bishop Rowdy Dowd Darling of the Year at the final North-South basketball game.

Early bird Saxons begin the school day at 7:30 am, ending at 2:40 pm.

VARIETY SEEN IN SAXON COURSES

Mr. Del Ramesdell and Mr. Mark A. Smith

Launching the Thanksgiving vacation was an assembly in the gym, at which Mr. Mark A. Smith of the Civil Rights Division of the Bureau of Labor in the State of Oregon spoke to the entire student body. The title of his speech was "Be Thankful for Life, Liberty, and Learning". Tom Needham, Mickey Wright, and Ken Sherman were speakers. The A Cappella Choir sang and a group of students led by Mary Chism gave choral reading.

The first decade of proud and loyal Saxons has seen the number of incoming Sophomores grow from 356 to 682. In the first three years, students came from just one junior high, Leslie. In 1959, a second junior high began sending students also. At the present they come from three, including Walker Junior High in West Salem.

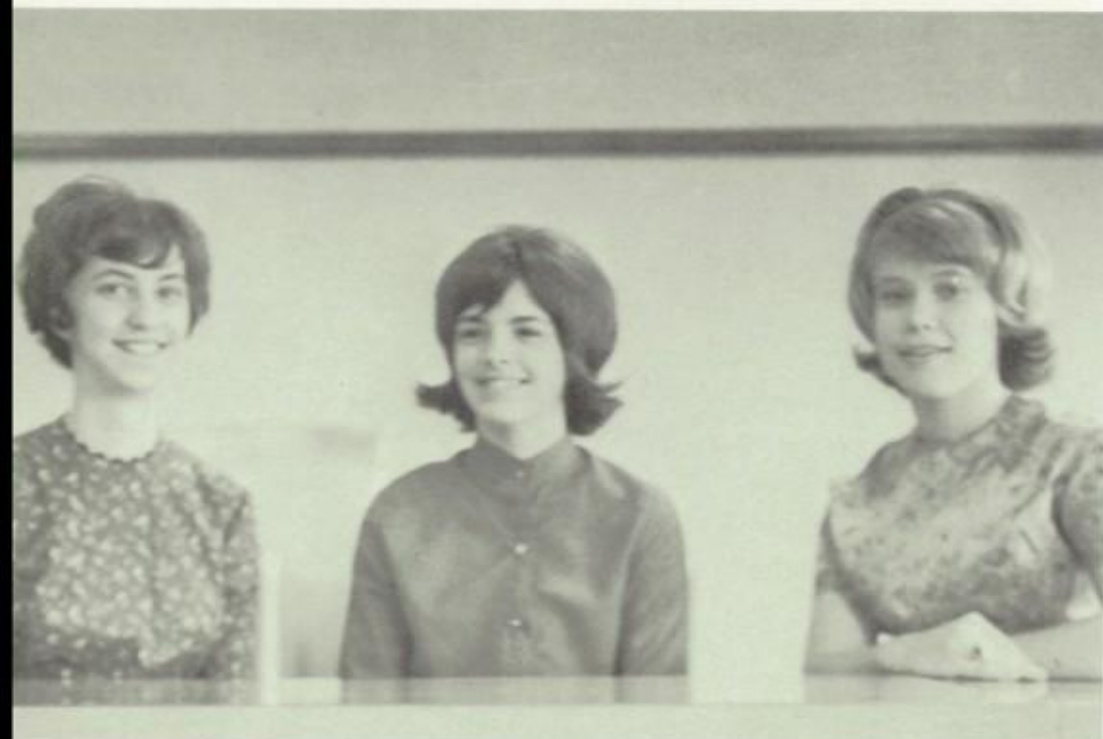

A dance, a basket social, a roller skating party, and a rally dinner were the projects of the first "baby" Saxons. Projects undertaken this year were a class party and a welcome banner to be presented to the school.

The first sophomore movie shown was "Arsenic and Old Lace." This year "Bachelor in Paradise" was chosen as the class movie.

Twelve of the 1963-64 sophomores ranked in the 99th percentile in Iowa test results.

Discussing plans for a class project are Guy Colby, Rick Shoup, and Jan Eldred.

Busy council representatives are Judy Gohring, Cathie Long, and Karen Hertel.

To acquaint the members with the many aspects and job opportunities in the field of home economics is the purpose of the Home Economics Club. Preparing a basket of food for a poor family at Christmas and Easter was one of the projects this year. At graduation time Silversmiths of America present a silver award to the outstanding senior girl in the club. Other projects and activities this year have included a Chinese dinner, interesting speakers with meetings, and a noon dance. Now in its tenth year, the club is under the leadership of Mrs. Marjorie White, Adviser; Sandy Bauer, president; Connie Lang, vice-president; Jolae Grabow, secretary; and Lauralee Laker, treasurer.

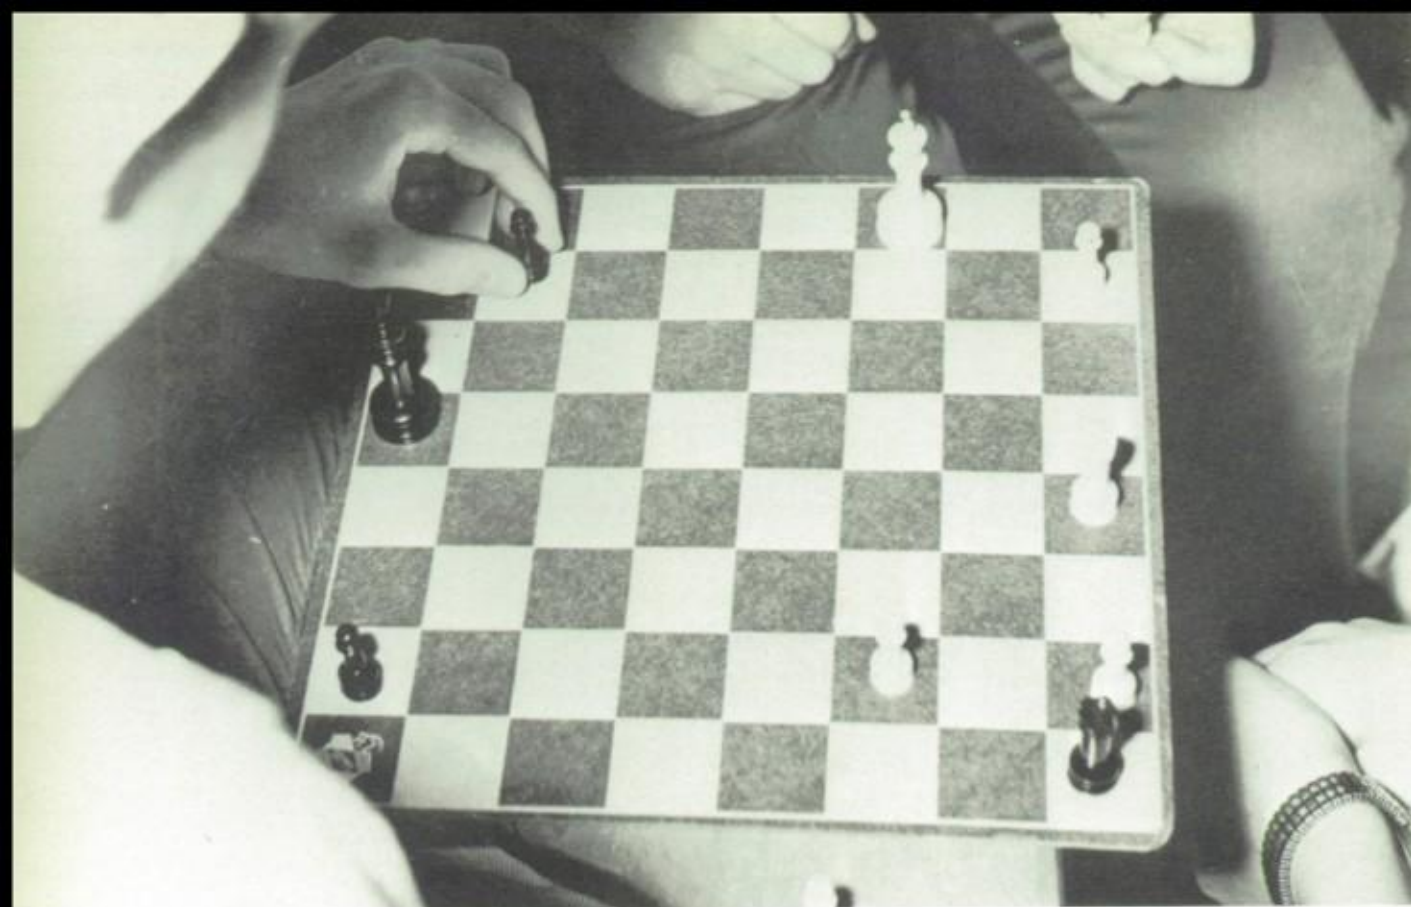

INTEREST CLUBS PROVE WORTH

Commercial Club, in its tenth year at South, is under the leadership of Jody Loop, president; Kenny Purviance, vice-president; Mary Lou Moore, secretary; Pat Beach, Treasurer; and Mary Nelson, historian. Commercial Club members listen to a speaker at one of their meetings.

Now in its second year at South, the Car Club strives to create a better atmosphere in relation to the automobile. The club has held a safety drive and a car wash during the year. Members of this club also select the car of the month to give recognition to car enthusiasts who have achieved noticeable success and originality in restoring, customizing, and caring for their cars. Mr. Jerry Gilman is the adviser and officers are Dan Lemmon, president; Barry Samuels, vice-president; Terry Crawford, secretary; Von Bowles, treasurer; Wally Sweet, sergeant-at-arms; and Earl Bailey, assistant sergeant-at-arms.

A third place in the Northern Division of the Willamett Valley Chess League was the major achievement of the 1964 Saxon Chess Team. Members of the team are Steve Langhoff, Glen Martin, Dennis Miner, Dennis Wolfe, and Bob Bolender; Alternates are Tom Bathurst, John Knapp, and Steve Fox. The Club serves to give members an opportunity to improve their chess game and to encourage intra-school and inter-school competition. The club is under the leadership of Glen Martin, president; Tom Bathurst, vice president; John Knapp, secretary-treasurer; Bob Bolender and Elton Ford, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Gwen Craft is its adviser.

CLUBS PROVIDE CHALLENGES

Seventy-six Saxon seniors participated in the retail selling program in the tenth year of its existence at South. Forty-three students participated in 1955. Students are employed in nearly every type of business in the Salem area. Mr. Maurice Adams, the first supervisor, remained in the program 8½ years; Mr. John Norman finished the '62-'63 year; and Mr. Frank Tanaka assumed the position in September, 1963.

One of the three classes this year has a special project of supporting a foster child in Italy.

MARGARET

Margaret Low, American Field Service exchange student from Malaysia, arrived in the United States on August 29, 1963. Her first reaction upon arrival was one of confusion; however, she soon found the feeling diminishing as she became a member of the James Ellingson family.

American classes differ greatly from those of Malaysian schools says Margaret. In America she is taking art, French, physical education, American Problems, and English grammar. In Malaysia she was enrolled for such courses as economics, world history, history of the far East, and literature. Margaret does not take physical education in Malaysia.

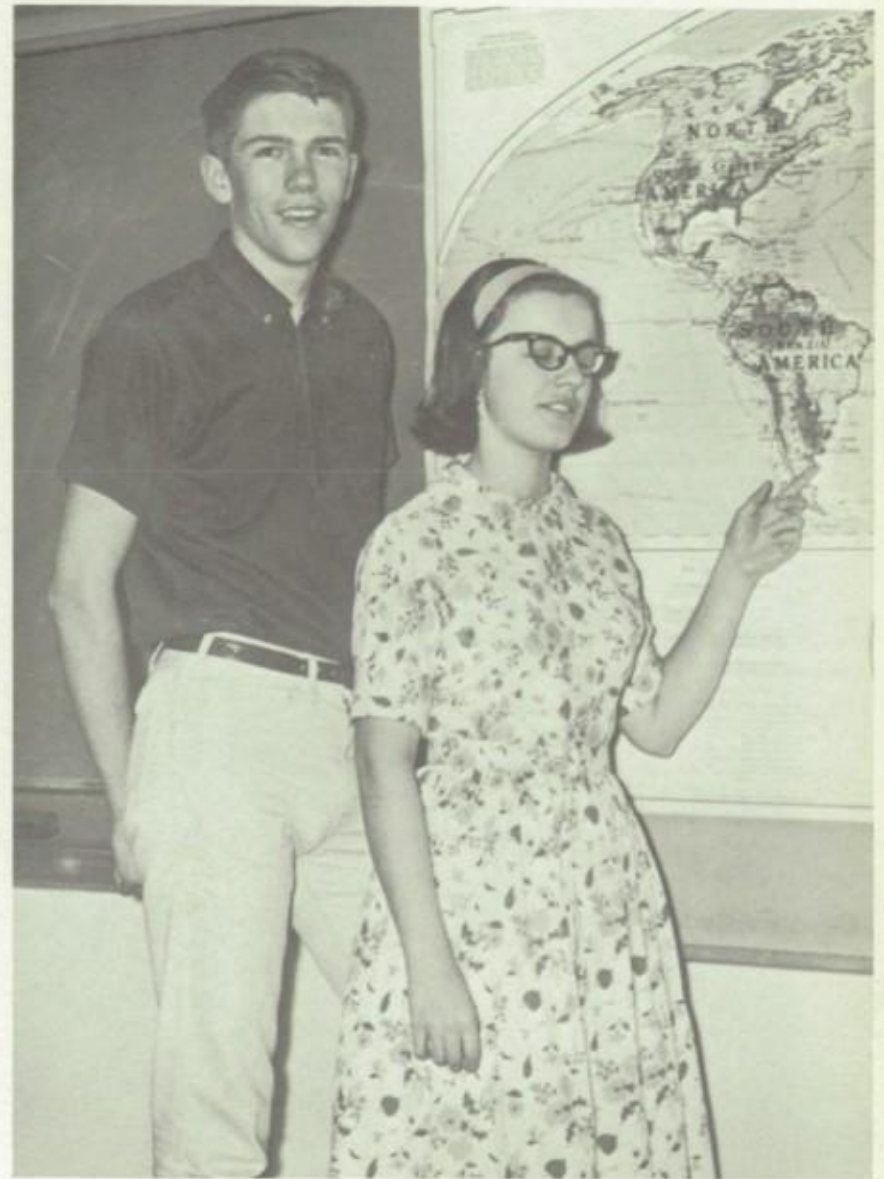

Christmas is not celebrated in her homeland, so this was a new experience for Margaret.

LANGUAGE EXPANSION SEEN OVER DECADE

A decade ago, the language clubs of South High consisted of a French club, a Spanish club, and a Latin club. Today there are a total of five language clubs. A Russian club was organized in 1962 with instructor Bill Ritchie as its adviser. The 1963-64 year marked the beginning of the German club with Mrs. Emily deWeese as adviser. President of French club is Ellen Cruse and adviser is Mrs. Smith. Nancy Sullivan is president of Spanish club and Mrs. Dunn is the adviser. Mark Olson heads the Latin club with Mrs. Prothero as its adviser. Fred Murdock is president of the Russian club, and Chris Achterman presides over the German club.

Polo Herrera, a student from Mexico, resided with Travis Admundson while he attended classes at South.

One of the activities sponsored by the Latin club was a noon dance held on January 23.

Heading events of the Russian club are president, Fred Murdock; adviser, Mr. Bill Ritchie; secretary, Sandy Bauer; sergeant-at-arms, Coust Cloyd; and vice-president, Terry Ryals.

Doreen Davis, secretary of the French club, looks over club business with president, Ellen Cruse, and vice-president, Don Trelstad.

The job of writing a constitution was undertaken by the newly organized German club advised by Mrs. Emily deWeese. Chris Achterman presided as the first president, Anne Hohweisner was secretary-treasurer, and Martha Much was vice-president.

POLITICAL INTERESTS EXPAND

To gain unbiased knowledge of political policies is the objective of Political Focus Club under the advisership of Mr. Cook. Ken Sherman is president; Mandy Merck, vice-president; and Francie Currie, secretary-treasurer.

The two partisan political clubs are in the formative stage. Mr. Burch is the adviser for Young Democrats. The officers are Greg Avison, president; Donna Becker, vice-president; and Marie Walls, secretary-treasurer. Teen-age Republicans are advised by Mr. Baker. Allan Hadley presides over the club and is assisted by Gerry VanSanten, vice-president; Linda Nunn, secretary; and Bruce Stangeby, treasurer.

Blaine Whipple speaks to Young Democrats.

Al Hadley chats with Nelson Rockefeller at the armory.

Mark Olson introduces the speaker at student seminar.

During the winter months the Girls' League presented a candy striper assembly, a hair styling assembly, and an exhibition by the Saxon gymnastic team. Two beauticians from the Doll House spoke to the girls about the latest trends in hair styling as they combed out the "Dandy," the latest hair style. Oregon's fourth ranking Saxon gymnastic team gave an exhibition of the stunts to be performed at the State tournament, and coach, Mr. Goodson, explained the fundamentals as each boy performed it.

Mr. John Salsbury, a Portland news commentator, spoke to the seniors during National Brotherhood Week. He recounted some of his experiences as a radio announcer and told a story about the valley of the purple people to explain his idea of the meaning of brotherhood.

Student seminars made their appearance at South this winter. The first seminar was held with its subject "Does God Exist" being presented by Professor Milton Hunnex of Willamette University. Four individual discussion groups were conducted by Salem Ministers, Rev. Baker, Rev. Haines, and Rev. Calhoun. The second seminar had as its subject, "Juvenile Delinquency" and Judge Joseph Felton, Amos Reid, and Ken Seipp were the discussion leaders. Mark Olsen organized and introduced each seminar.

The Boys' League presented an assembly about mountain climbing. Mr. Tom Nash spoke and showed slides of a climbing expedition on Mt. McKinley. During his talk he told the preparations necessary for a climb and about the actual climbing. He also told how he became interested in mountain climbing and some of his early experiences.

JUNIORS LARGEST CLASS IN SAX HISTORY

The junior class of 1963-'64, the tenth class of juniors, has a total enrollment of 735 and is the largest class of Saxons to enter South Salems doors. This number surpasses South's first junior class by 434 students.

Juniors began the year by winning the United Good Neighbors race, for which they staged a hanger drive, baked foods sale, and a junior class jail. Soon after the UGN drive, the class presented their movie, The King and I. Other projects were the class talent show on February 7th and the Junior-Senior prom held on May 16.

In September, 1962, twenty-two members of the 709 were announced as having achieved the 99th percentile in the Iowa tests, given the previous year.

Don Trelstad and Diane McKinney were chosen the American Field Service finalists from this class.

On March 10, 291 middleclassmen participated in the National Merit Scholarship tests. Throughout the year, juniors have been active in speech, drama, and sports.

SAXON SKIERS WRAP UP THIRD SEASON

Saxon Skiers: Rick Denton, Mike Blair, Captain; Kim Hobbs, Mike Vogt, Buck Miller, and Mike Shinn.

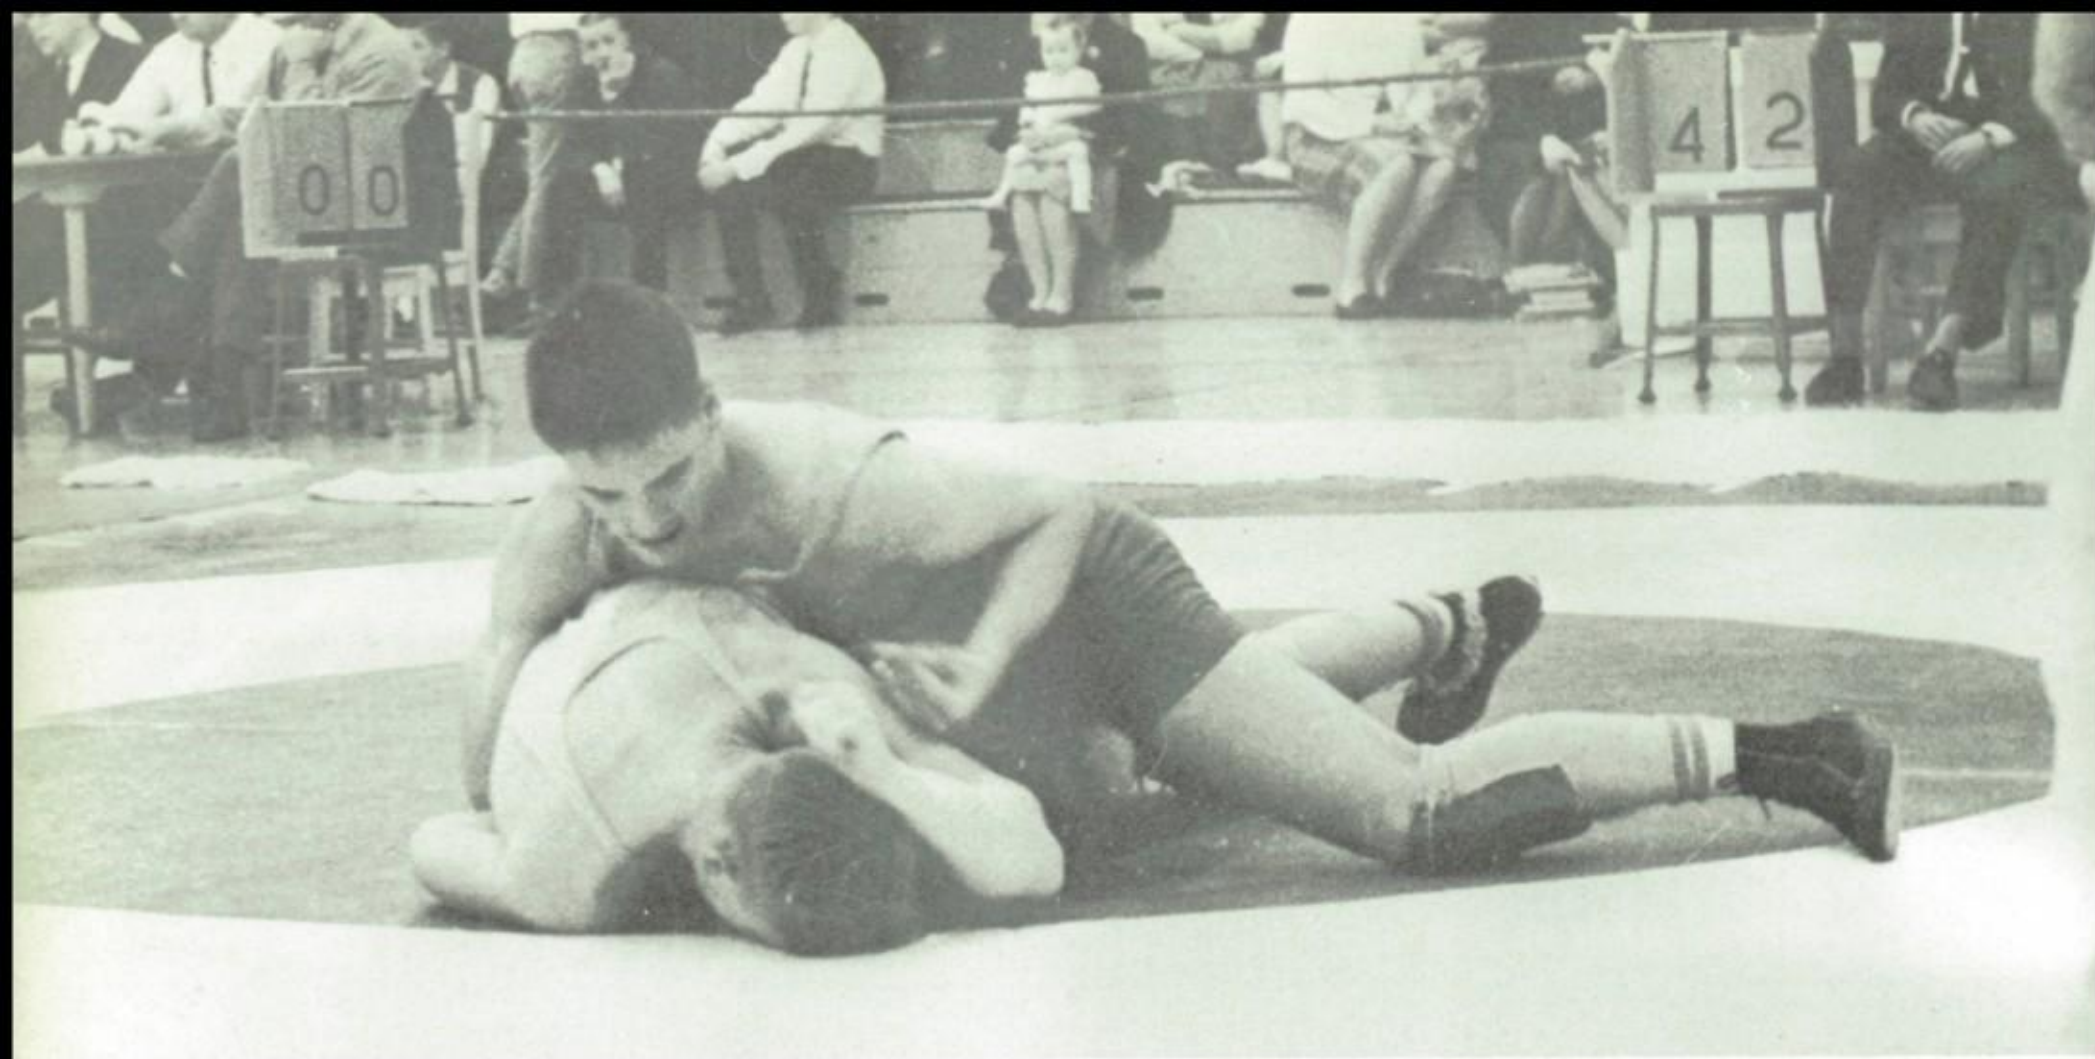

Ski Team adviser, John Edmundson, prepares to take movies of the team.

The unofficial ski team, sponsored by the Ski Club and supervised by Mr. John Edmundson, is composed of Rick Denton, Tom Needham, Mike Shinn, Mike Parker, Kim Hobbs, and the captain and main organizer Mike Blair. The Ski Club pays the team's entry fees.

This year the team competed in two meets, the Catlin-Gable Invitational and the Dartmouth Cup. In the Catlin-Gable, South finished sixth out of twenty-two entries. In the Dartmouth Cup, the Oregon High School championship, the Saxons placed thirteenth out of twenty-two entries.

Two years ago South's skiers won the Catlin-Gable and last year came in third. Most of the ski teams that our Saxons compete against are regular varsity teams.

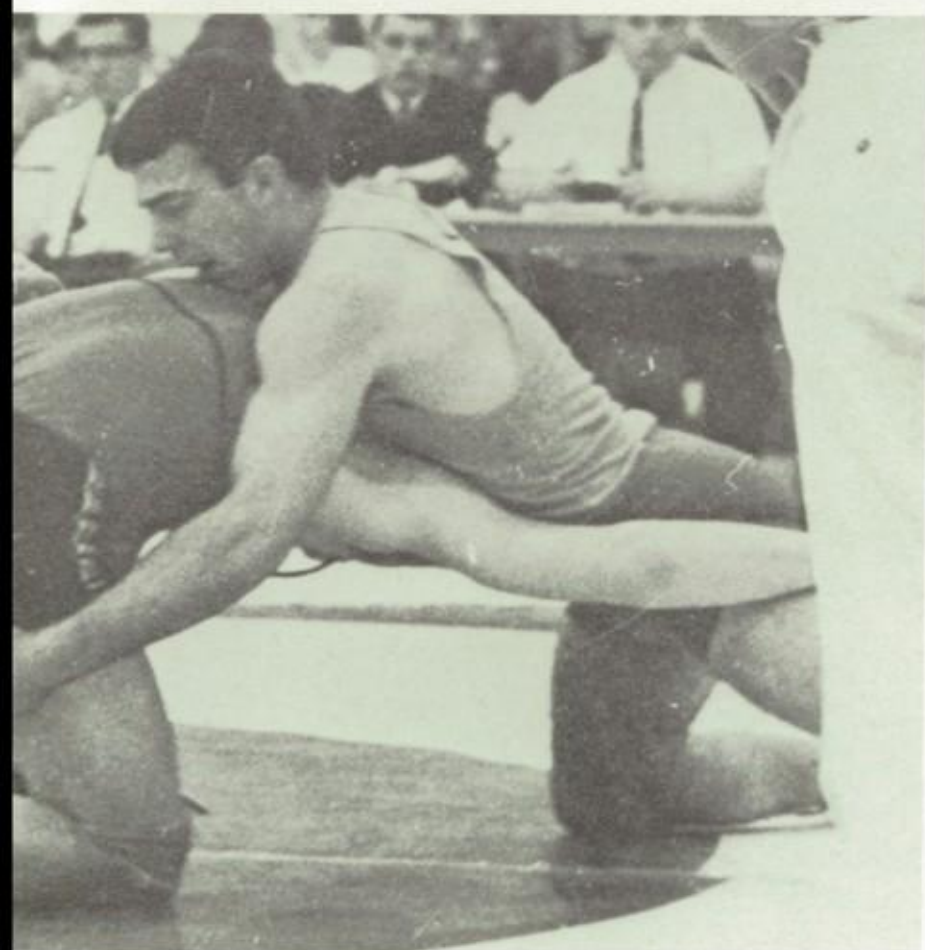

WRESTLERS TAKE FOURTH

Coach Kevin Morris with District Wrestlers from South.

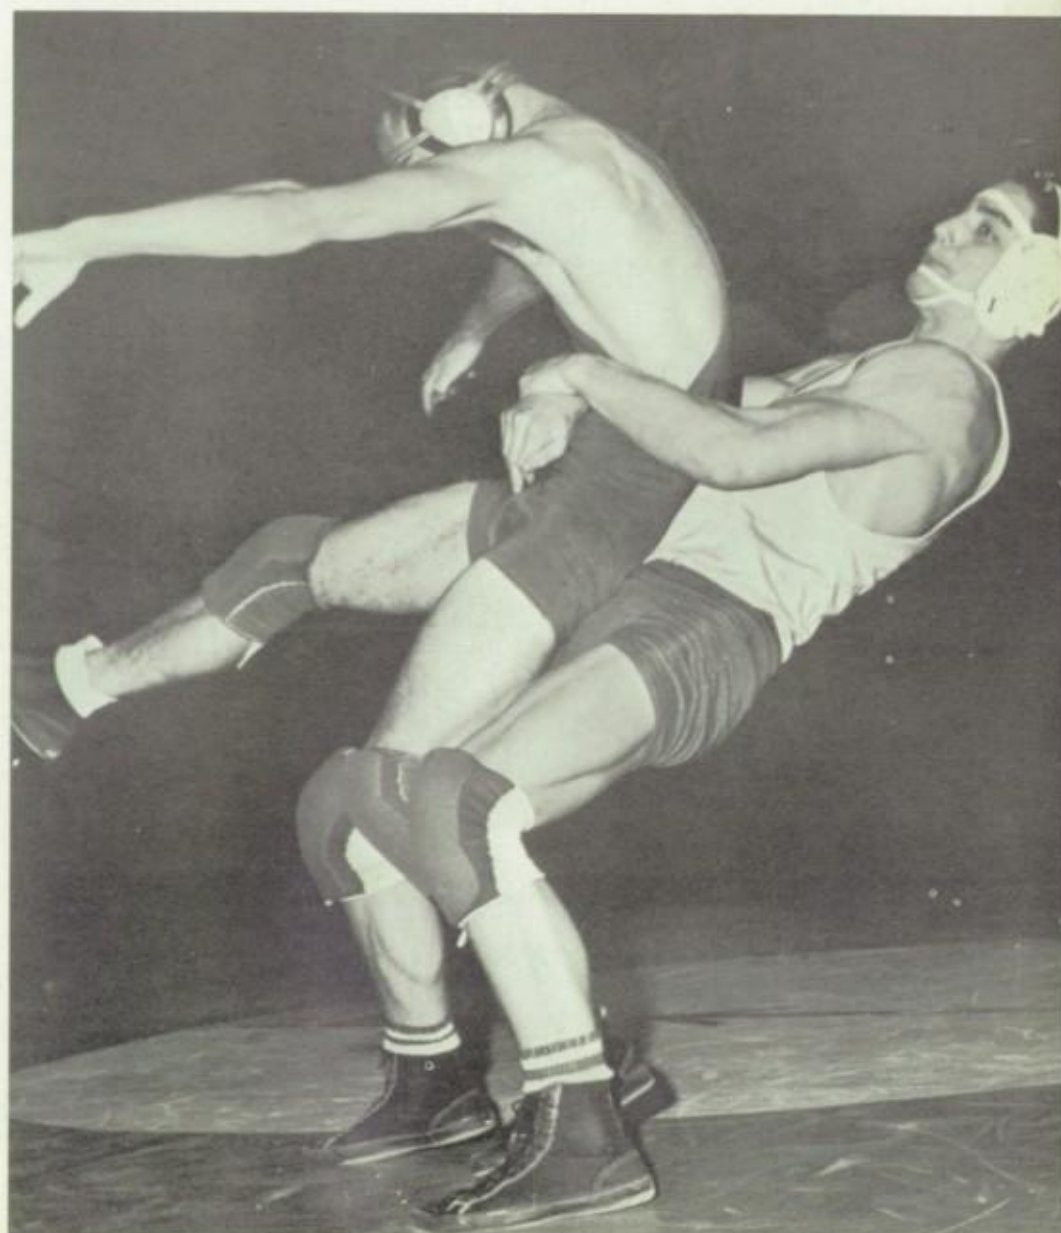

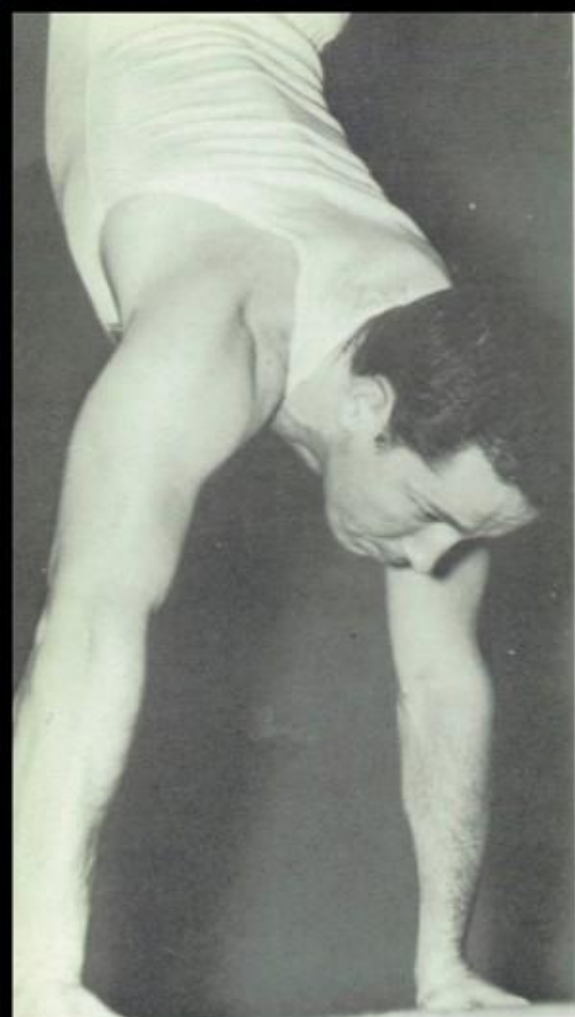

The 1964 wrestling team finished the season with a Fourth place in the District Competition at Sweet Home. Dick Vogt was voted the outstanding District 8A-1 wrestler. As they moved into the State competition both Vogt and Mickey Wright captured fourth place medals.

In the first ten years of Saxon history, the basketball team, under the direction of Coach Dick Ballantyne, entered the State Tourney six times.

In 1955 a tenth place tie at State culminated the basketball season. In 1956, the Saxons again competed in tourney play but did not place. After three years' absenteeism, the Saxons came back in 1960 to claim sixth place, followed by a seventh place in 1961. In 1962, South again claimed a tourney berth with twenty wins, three losses, and a perfect district record. At Eugene the Saxons dropped the second game to Cleveland and settled for a fourth place. The 1963 season saw the Saxons in Tournament action at which time they gained an eighth place.

From 1955 through 1964 the Saxons have posted 142 wins, losing only 83 games. The Saxons have beaten the Vikings twenty times and lost to them seventeen times.

Only district defeat was to the Corvallis Spartans. High scorers for the season were; Craig Cooley, 301 points; Bob Vick, 189; Mark Bedsaul, 159; and Dick Crostin, 99 points. In the last decade the J.V. team has compiled 146 wins and 63 losses. Mr. Metzger has coached the team for the past ten years.

The tenth annual Coronation Ball was held January 25th in the East Balcony. The ball room was decorated in a white and silver motif with a profusion of white streamers carrying out the effect. A silver rotating sphere, which may become a permanent fixture for South High dances, completed the theme of "Winter Cotillion."

For the first time in South's ten years, the Saxons selected an eleven couple court. Marilyn Miller was chosen First Lady, Mary Ellis and Julie Blaisdell first and second princesses. Their escorts were Lance Van Lydegraf, Spence Powell, and Casey Olinger. Music for the occasion was provided by the Continentals.

The first State Championship garnered by a Saxon golf squad climaxed the '64 season at Glendoveer Golf Course in Portland, May 19. At the end of the first day, South led thirty-seven other teams with a total score of 298. The nearest threat was Medford with 307. Steve Carlson fired a two-under-par 72. Lance Van Lydegraf and Chuck Milne posted 75's and Ed Morris shot a 76.

On the second day Lance saved the team with an even par 74 for a total of 149, Steve Carlson and Chuck Milne came in with total scores of 153 by firing 81 and 78 respectively, and Ed Morris posted an 86, for a total of 162. The team total of 617 was three strokes better than runner-up David Douglas and nine strokes better than South Eugene and Corvallis.

In regular season matches the golfers were never bettered. Lebanon, Corvallis, Albany, Tillamook, Sweet Home, and North Salem fell before the fine shooting of the Saxons. The Sax first pitted their strength against Lebanon, to win 12 to 3. The following week South defeated the Spartans, 8 to 7. The next week the Saxons handed another defeat to Corvallis, 12½ to 2½. The next three matches, against Albany, Tillamook, and Sweet Home, were all victories at 15-0. In the final match of the year South downed North 13½ to 1½. In the Up-State Tournament the Saxons finished fifth out of twenty teams. In the District Tourney South topped the other eight entries. Casey Olinger and Ed Morris alternated in the number-one position during the season. Due to a cracked rib, Casey dropped out of play just before the State Tourney.

In his tenth year as coach, Mr. Lou DeLoretto directed the track team with a new-comer, Mr. Gary Goodson, as his assistant.

The Saxon cindermen have taken nine out of ten district crowns, upsetting North this year to gain their ninth.

SPEECH TEAM SCORES WINS

Saxon debaters and speech team members have participated in approximately one dozen meets this year. Steve Guidinger placed first with an original oratory in the Oregon-Washington district NFL meet and won the right to participate in the national meet. In the state speech meet, debaters Ken Sherman and Marty Steinbock tied with Centennial High School for fourth place, and Brian Beirne placed second in radio commentary. Nine of the sixteen first and second places at the district meet were won by the Saxon team. Receiving superior ratings at the two critique tournaments were Mary Chism, Mandy Merck, Mary Jane Freeburn, Ken Sherman, Marty Steinbock, and Gary Martin. South tied with Medford for second place sweepstakes in the men's division at Pacific University's annual tournament. District Soil Conservation Speech Contest winners were Walter Winslow, first place, and Mary Jane Freeburn, second place. Graham Hicks placed first in the local Optimist Club contest and later won the district contest. (Coaching the South Salem students for the tenth year was Miss Amanda Anderson.)

FOREIGN STUDENTS VISIT SOUTH

Young Danish gymnasts show their skill and stamina.

Nina Kutter, an exchange student from Switzerland, visits the Saxons.

Topping the list of all-school assemblies was one in which a Danish gym team, composed of twelve girls and twelve boys, demonstrated their feats of agility and skill. The girls performed graceful routines to music using balls and hoops. Ten of the girls performed on balance beams. The boys did routines to music and performed on the horse. Two of the boys did a Danish folk dance.

The young Danes, chosen from among their peers, were accompanied by a commentator, two trainers, and a pianist. They had been working together for one month when they began touring the world giving exhibitions.

The Danes joined the students in singing "The Star Spangled Banner" and then sang the Danish national anthem to close the assembly.

Nina Kutter, a German speaking native of Switzerland and exchange student at North Salem, spoke to South's German club, student council, and Miss Lane's fifth period U.S. History class.

Danish girls exhibit their ability on the balance beam.

Peggy Drennen and Dick Curbon are headed for a summer beach party.

WALKING THROUGH THE FRAME OF FASHION

The tenth annual Girls' League Spring style show was held March tenth during home room. Commentator for the style show was Miss Pauline Anderson. Terry DeCoss and her assistant, Claudia Schweigert, were in charge of organization for the show. Fourteen girls and six boys modeled.

Ready for a spring dance are Cathy Swofford and Mike Blair.

Kate Loggan and Terry Brody leave for an afternoon golf date.

Trips to the Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children, the University of Oregon Medical School, and local hospitals were the main activities of this year's Medical Club. The club has also heard speakers from different areas in the medical field. The purpose of the club is to increase student interest in a medical career. Miss Patricia Rynerson is the advisor. Officers are Peggy Cameron, president; Mary Kurti, vice president; and Sally Juza, secretary.

The art club, which has been active since the beginning of South High, has changed little. Under the leadership of Sandy Cohn, president; Nancy Vick, vice-president; Dixie Quarry, secretary-treasurer; and Mr. Noland, adviser, the 1963-'64 club decorated the school for Christmas and painted posters for various school productions and performances.

Tri-M, the national music honorary, has been one of South Salem's family of clubs for ten years. Members are selected from the various music groups for ability and scholarship.

THREE OF SOUTH CLUBS PROMOTE SPECIAL INTERESTS

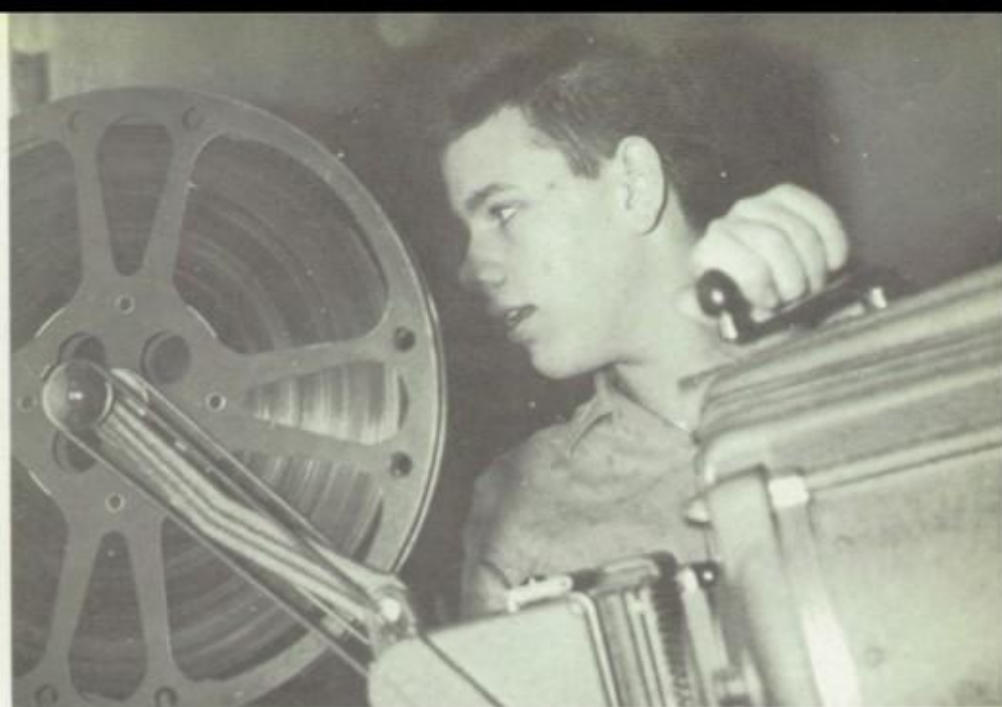

Working behind the scenes at the assemblies and plays are the A.V.A. (Audio-Visual Aids) boys. They work with such things as scenery, setting, and lighting so that every production moves smoothly. The boys also operate projectors for films shown in classrooms. Mr. Maynard Nelson has been in charge of the Audio-Visual Aids department since 1954.

Announcing at noon dances and school sports events is the main project of the Announcers' Club. Officers are Ron Rees, president; Doug Lamb, vice-president; and Frank Fredickson, secretary-treasurer. Adviser during the tenth year of the club is Mr. Earl Ficken.

Working behind the scenes at noon dances are Roger Obershaw, George Jones, Ron Rees, and Doug Lamb.

SAXON BOYS SERVE SCHOOL

Working with the club station are Radio-Electronics Club members Gary Joseph, John Ewing, and Tom Bathurst.

Amateur radiograms broadcast by the club members over the club station is a project of the 1963-64 Radio Electronics Club. Most of the members now have their amateur radio licenses. Classes were conducted for those who wanted licenses but did not previously have them. In its tenth year at South, the club is under the leadership of Mr. Earl Ficken, adviser; John Ewing, president; Mike Haines, vice-president; and Bruce Franklin, secretary.

The first round of the second annual high school bowl, sponsored by Quill and Scroll, was held May 6 when juniors Mandy Merek, Chris Achterman, Walt Winslow, and Beth Humphreys defeated sophomores Sara Sherman, Bob-Ann Ward, Walt Apley, and Debi Janicek.

On May 13, the victorious junior team pitted their wits against the senior team consisting of Valerie Knights, Bruce Black, Jody Toone, and Mary Chism, to emerge victorious for the event. Jack Milne and Laurie Driessler acted as moderators for the function. Proceeds from the event exceeded those of last year and will provide a scholarship.

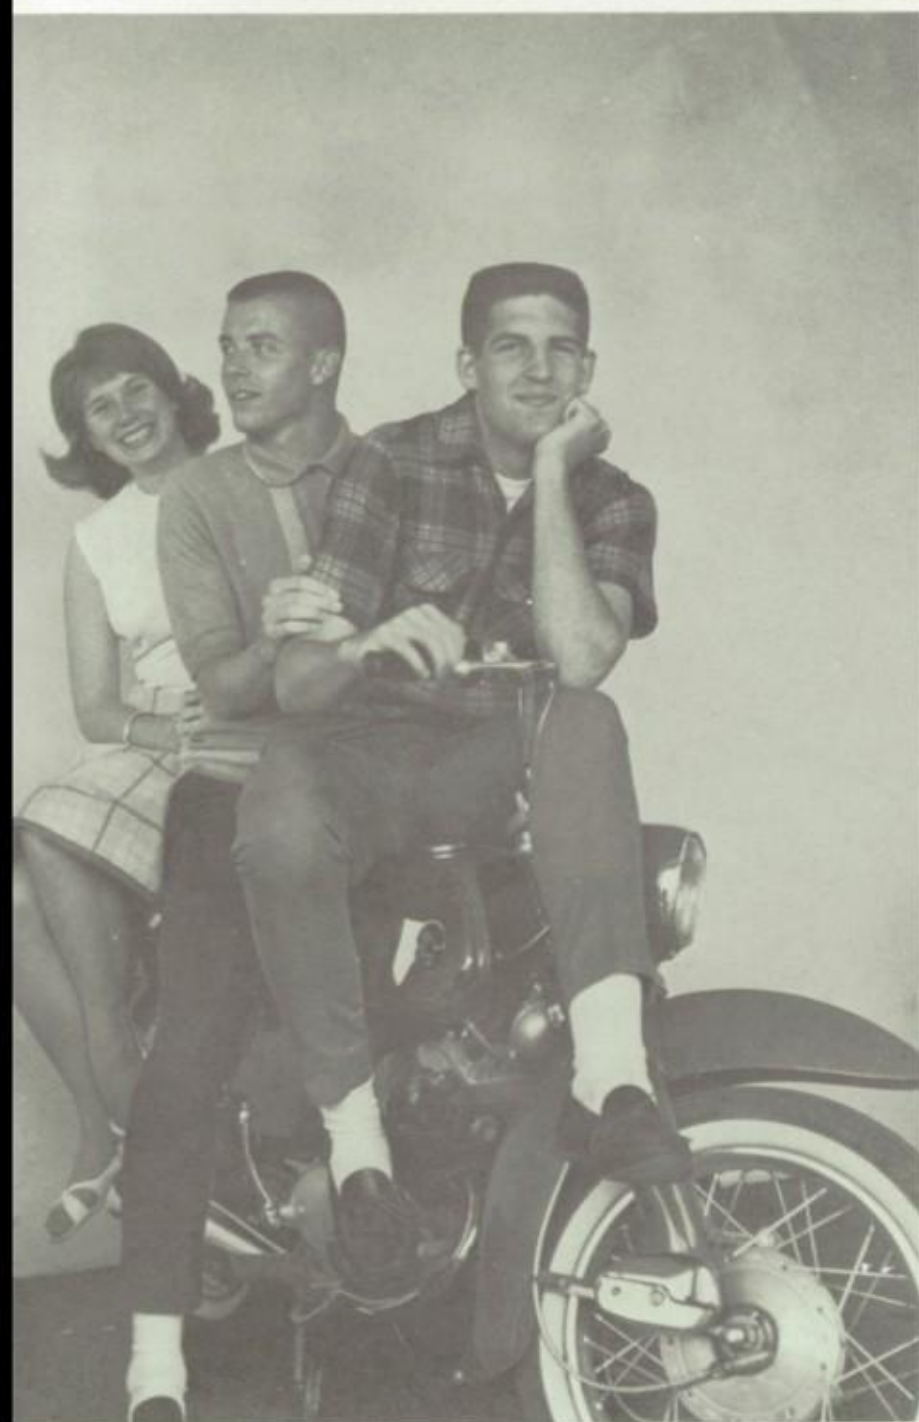

QUILL AND SCROLL SPONSORS SECOND ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL BOWL

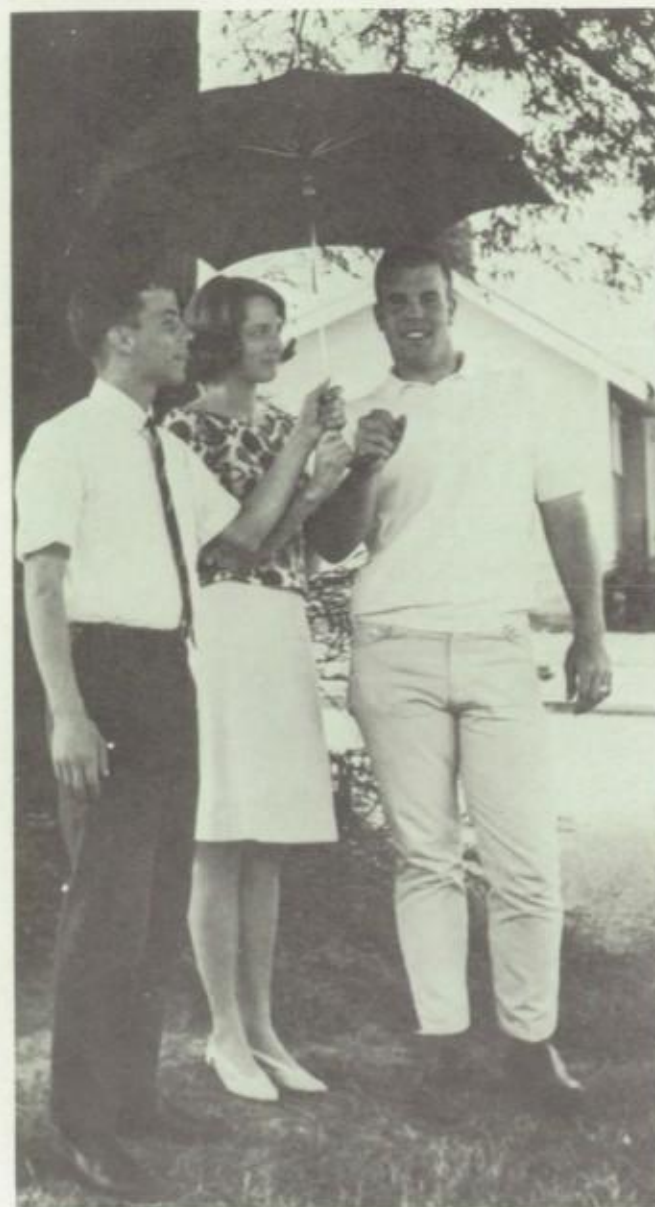

Quill and Scroll, International journalism honor society, serves to encourage interest in student journalism and in journalism careers. The club, this year under the leadership of Laurie Driessler, president; Marea McDermeit, vice-president; and Mr. Baker, adviser, provides a scholarship for the most outstanding senior journalist each year. South has had an organized chapter since 1954 when the school began. In its first six years the club functioned as a service club as well as an honorary, providing information in the form of bulletins and bulletin boards for all school elections. During one year they duplicated and posted important school announcements.

HONORS SPRING UP

March: Cathy Swofford, Girl of the Month; Mike Vollmar, Rotarian; Bill Holmer, Boy of the Month.

May: Dick Horner, Rotarian; Suzanne Gearhart, Girl of the Month; Spence Powell, Boy of the Month.

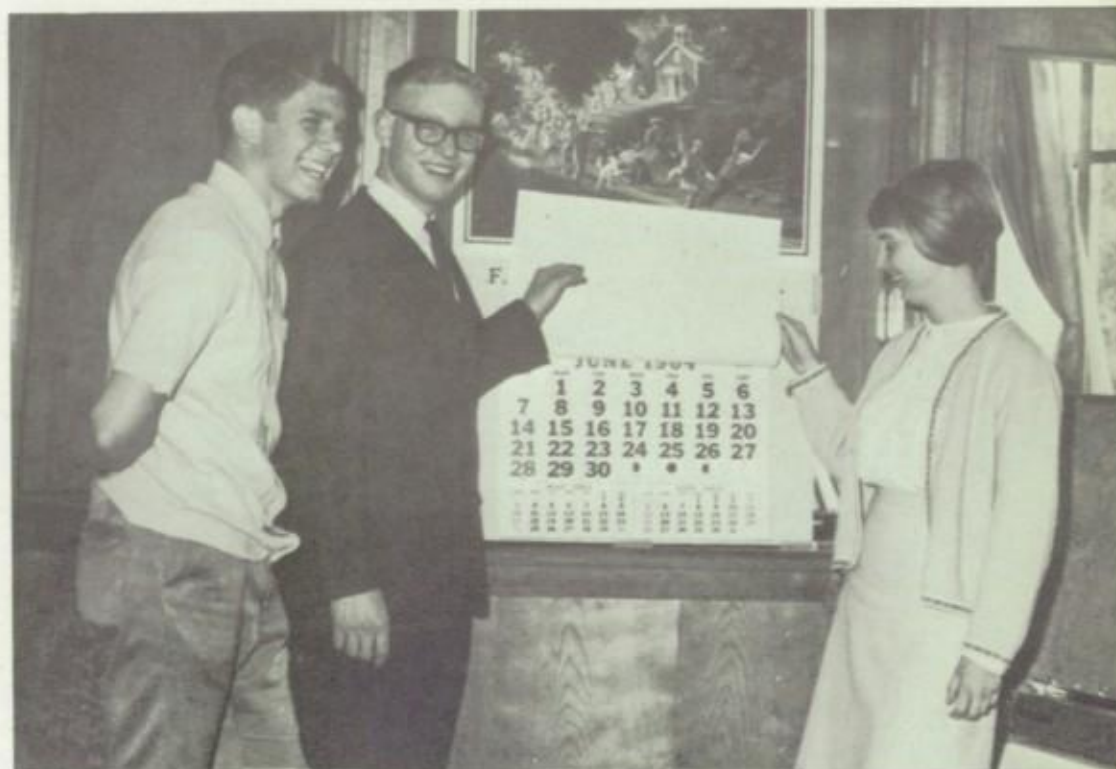

Throughout the year, outstanding seniors have been honored by the selection of girl of the month, a boy of the month, and a rotarian.

Girls' League home room representatives select a girl each month to honor for a special quality, such as service or cooperation.

The boy of the month is chosen by popular vote of the boys. The practice of choosing a boy of the month was started at the beginning of the 1963-'64 school year with the formation of the Boys' League.

Students selected for these honors vie for the title of Girl of the Year and Boy of the Year, which are announced at the Senior Assembly.

Names are submitted to student council by home room representatives for the selection of Rotarian. A committee, headed by the previous month's Rotarian, selects three or four candidates from the names submitted. Student council members elect a new Rotarian at the second meeting each month.

April: Cliff Brown, Boy of the Month; Ken Sherman, Rotarian; Gail Brown, Girl of the Month.

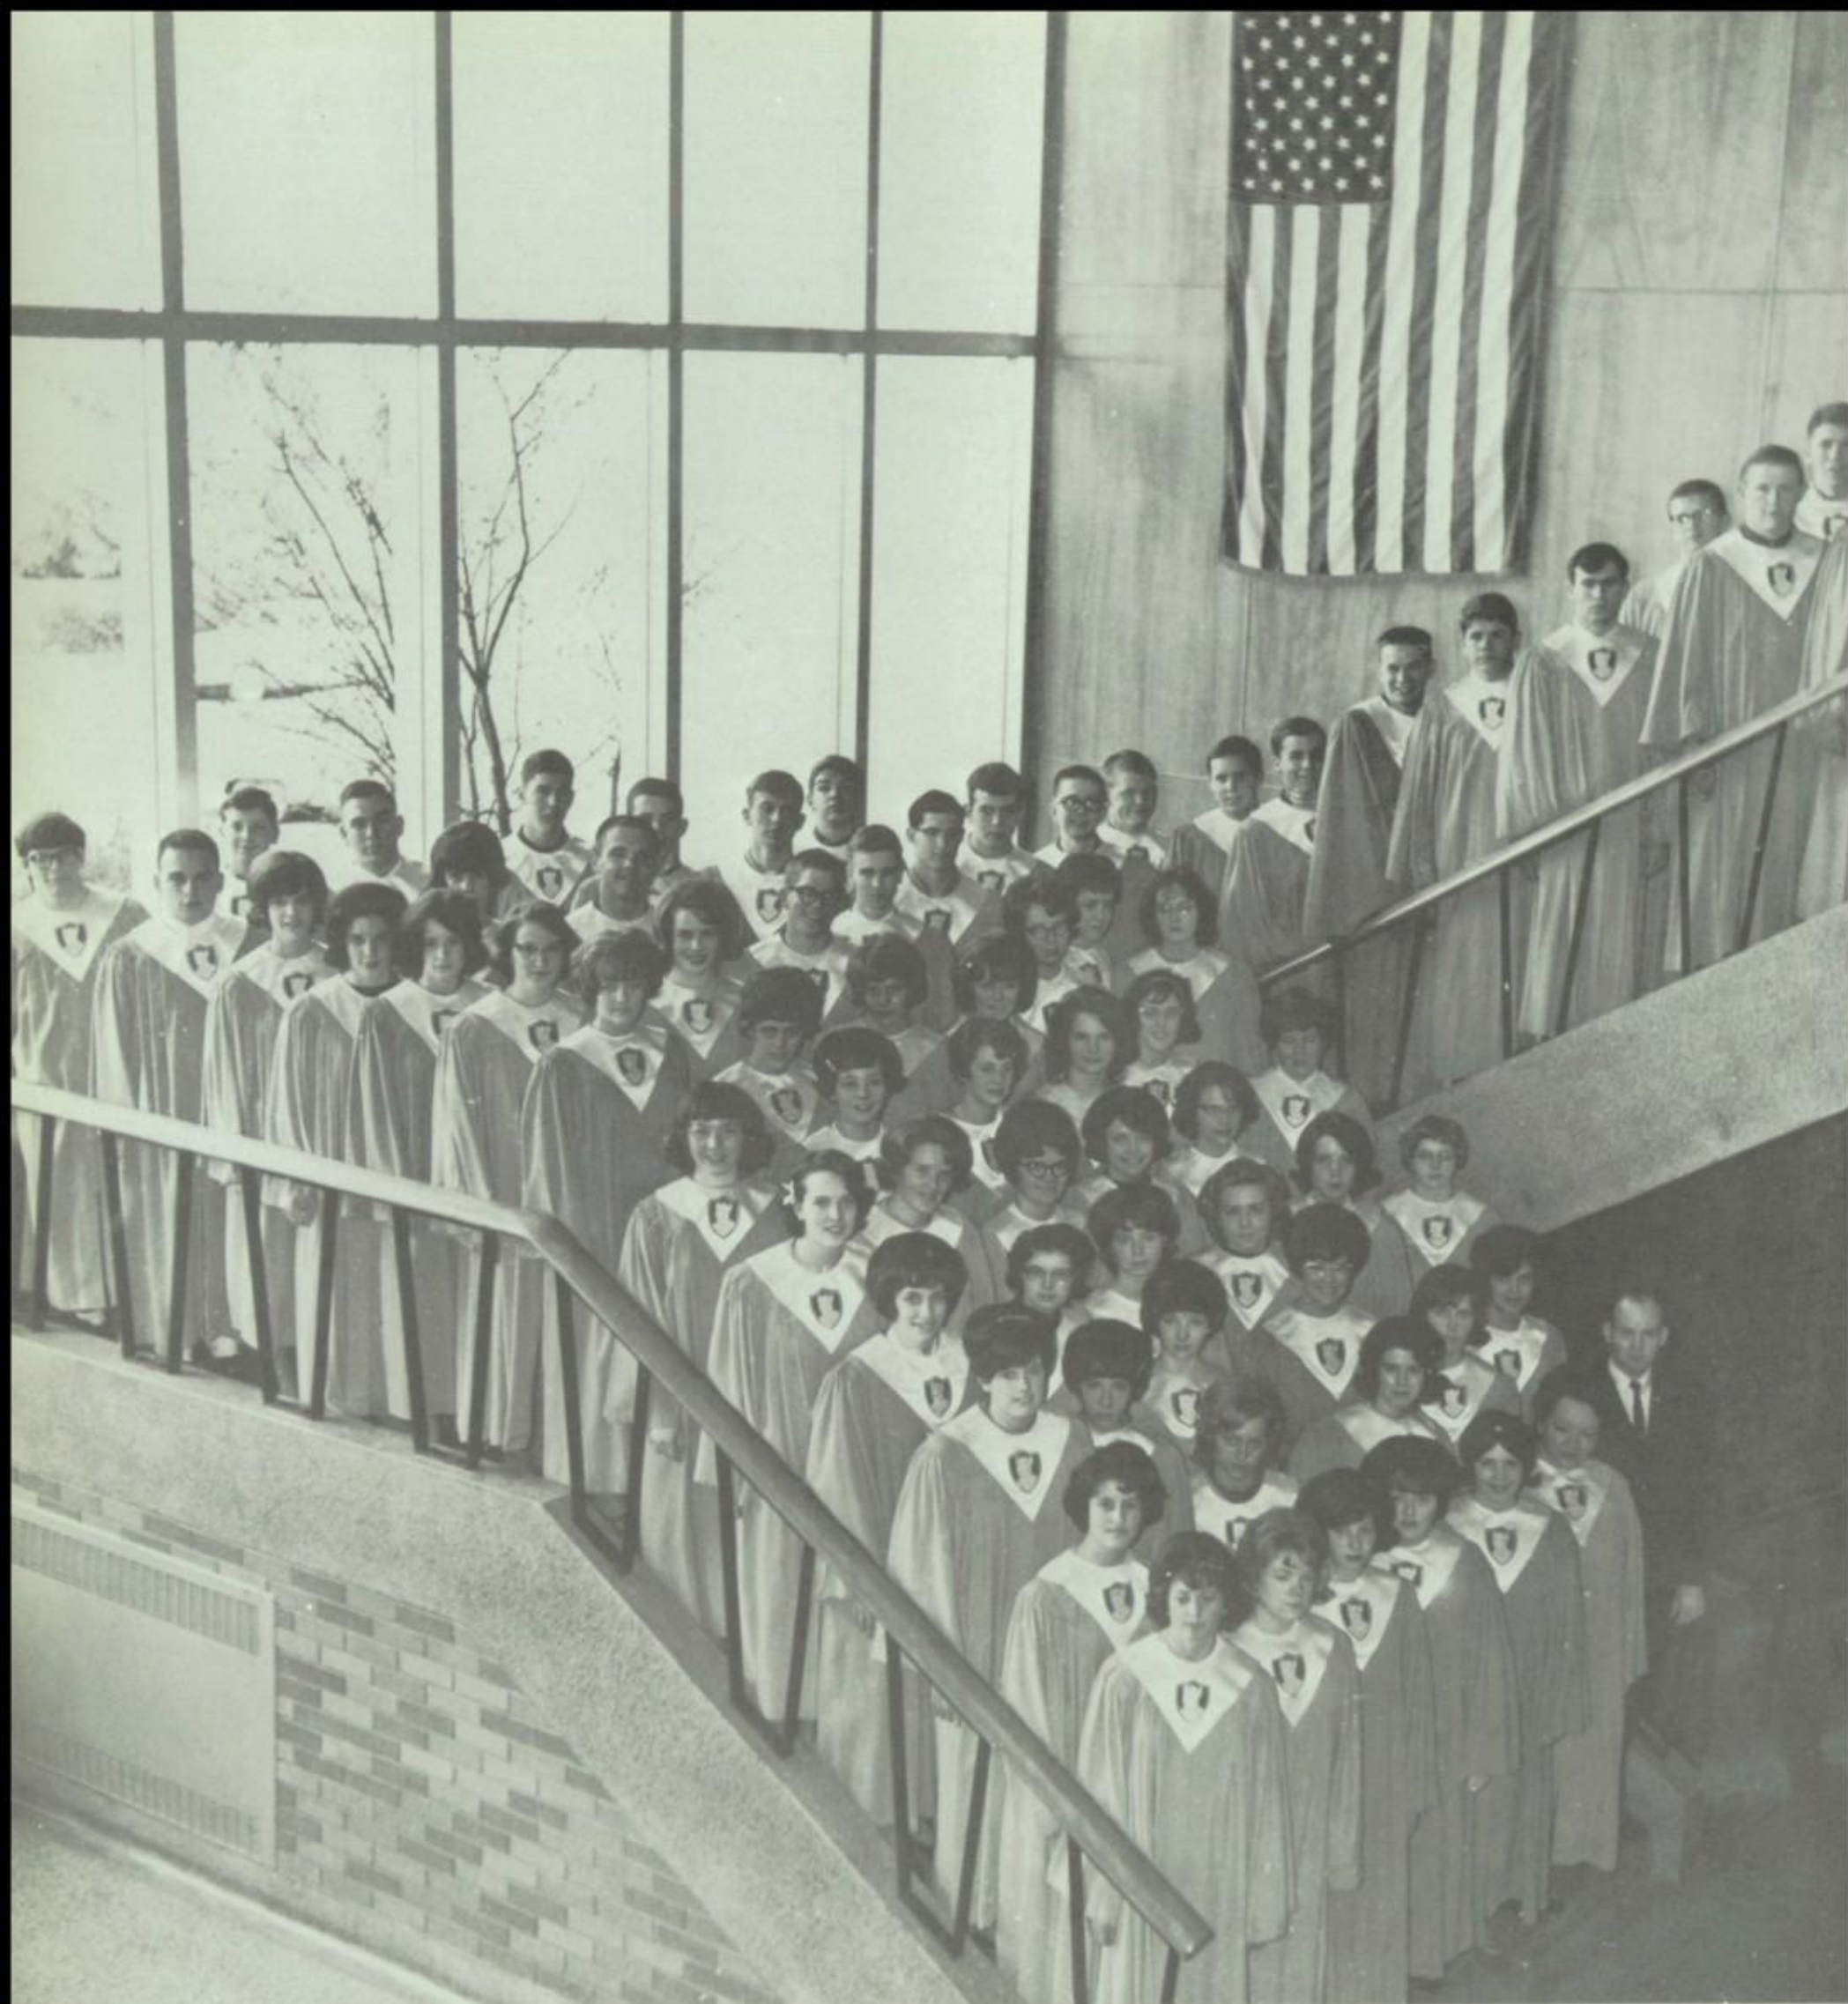

SAXON LOVE OF FUN IS SHOWN ON TWIRP DAY

On Friday, April 10, the halls of South Salem abounded with many fantastic configurations ranging from convicts to cavemen to celebrate Twirp day. The tradition, stemming from the comic strip "Freckles" was first observed by a week of twirps. In 1957 the event was limited to a one day observance.

In the evening, under a canopy of balloons, the Drifters played for the Twirp dance sponsored by the Boys League. Dancing was from 8-11 p.m. in the East Balcony.

The 70 voice A Cappella choir, directed by Gary Frame, participated in both school and Community events. Among the most important were The Oregon Musical Educators Conference in Portland, Jester Hairston Festival, the Thanksgiving and Christmas assemblies, and fall and spring concerts at South. LETTERMEN GAIN RECOGNITION National Athletic Scholarship Society began with fifteen members ten years ago. At the present time forty boys are members. These boys have at least a 3.0 G.P.A. and are active in high school sports. Officers are president, Spencer Powell; vice-president, Dick Vogt; secretary-treasurer, Rod Rudishauser; and sergeant-at-arms, Lance VanLydegraf. Mr. Harold Hauk is adviser of N.A.S.S. and S-Men.

The first organization of S-Men was comprised of fifty-six members. Membership now has risen to one hundred and six. Every letter-man is eligible for membership.

N.F.L. HAS ACTIVE YEAR

The South Salem Chapter of National Forensic League, an honorary speech club, was formed at South in 1955 and has been advised by Miss Anderson throughout the ten year period. 1963-64 officers include president, Mary Chism; vice-president, Ken Sherman; and secretary-treasurer, Mary Jane Freeburn.

Senior member, Steve Guidinger placed first in the oratory division at state tournament in Portland during spring vacation.

Twelve new members were initiated May 12 at a pot-luck dinner held at the Guidinger home. The dinner was followed by a formal, candle-lighting induction ceremony and impromptu speeches given by the initiates.

"THE GLASS

MENAGERIE'' HIGHLIGHTS DRAMA SEASON

Under the direction of Miss Margaret Burroughs, the drama students staged three productions during the year: Suppressed Desires, a one-act play; 'Op 'o Me Thumb, a three-act play; and The Glass Menagerie, a three-act play by Tennessee Williams. The Glass Menagerie was presented to the public on the evenings of May 7 and May 8 by the advanced drama students, and the other two plays were presented to the student body during homeroom periods on October 22, 23, 24, and February 25, 26, and 27.

The tenth annual "Funzapoppin" talent show was presented to capacity crowds on May 1 and 2. The performance followed no format, but resembled a television variety show, consisting of twenty-one widely varied acts. Marth Mills was the student director and Mr. John Baker was the faculty adviser.

Over 560 students entered Saxon land as sophomores in 1960. Of this number, nearly 500 make up the present senior class (compared to the 270 seniors in South's first graduating class, ten years ago).

As sophomores the class of 1964 sponsored car washes and bake sales to compete in the United Fund Drive and to begin accumulating funds for future projects. They also sponsored the traditional movie and class party.

The goal of the class as juniors, to provide the graduating seniors with an elaborate prom, was met in the form of "The Twelfth of Never" which almost resulted in "Never Never".

In their final year the seniors sold school calendars, the first student or class sponsored calendars to be sold in South's ten year history. The class earned $508 in the United Good Neighbor Drive, placing second in the competition. Greg Ogdahl was crowned Mr. United Good Neighbor.

By comparison the first senior class movie in 1954 was "Call Me Madam", the tenth senior class movie was "Operation Madball".

The class of 1964 had four students in the semi-finals in the National Merit Scholarship Tests as compared to thirty-one in previous years. This year's semi-finalists were: Tom Needham, Martha Mills, Suzanne Gearhart, and Valerie Knights.

Go thou thy way, and I go mine,
Apart, yet not afar;

He looks thy way, He looketh mine,
And keeps us near.

"Under Paris Skies" was presented by the junior class, under the supervision of junior class vice-president Cindy Beard, on Saturday, May 16, from 9:00 P.M. to 12:00 P.M. Glen Williams' orchestra played for what was one of the best-attended of any South High prom. The East Balcony was transformed for the occasion into a Parisian village by a sidewalk cafe, a flower stand, a meat market, and gardens with pink-flowered trees. Junior Bill Trezise sang the theme song, "Under Paris Skies."

UNDER PARIS SKIES

The annual senior banquet was held May 22, in the Starlight Room of the Marion Motor Hotel. Faculty advisers Mrs. Marjorie White, Mr. Don Guenther, Mr. Jerry Gilman, and Miss Winona Havrenak; and Cathy Swofford, general chairman, organized the banquet and used the theme "In Today..... Walks Tomorrow." Attended by approximately three hundred forty graduating seniors, the banquet was highlighted by Mr. A's remarks disclosing a few senior secrets, a humorous reading by Marilyn Dyer, and a piano duet by Franz Schwiesow and Warren Kellicut. Mrs. Winona Wright, Miss Amanda Anderson, Miss Helen Lane, and Mr. Robert Voigt were recognized as having attended all ten Saxon senior banquets.
